REAL LEADER CAUGHT

Mabini, Power Behind Aguinaldo, a Prisoner.

BOLDSTROKE OF CAPTAIN MCALLA.

Surrender to Him of Cagayan Province, Taken With Holdings of MacArthur and Young, Put Northern End of Luzon Technically In Our Possession.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—The secretary of war regarded the information conveyed in General Otis' dispatches as the most important that has come to hand for months past. The capture of Mabini reported by MacArthur from Bayambang, was especially gratifying. It is believed that the Filipino leader was trying to make his way across country from Bangued, where he had been obliged to part company with Aguinaldo a fortnight ago, to the east coast of Luzon. The members of the Philippine commission now in Washington declare without reserve that Mabini was the head and front of the insurrection. Aguinaldo was only a figurehead. Mabini was also the financial strength of the movement, as without his backing Aguinaldo would have had no credit.

Next in importance to the capture of Mabini in the developments of the campaign was the bold stroke of Captain McCalla of the Newark in capturing the whole province of Cagayan. With MacArthur holding the province of Isabela, adjoining, and Young's holdings on the opposite or western shore of the upper peninsula, the American forces are now in technical occupation of the whole northern end of Luzon from a point just north of the gulf of Lingayen. McCalla posted at the port of Aparri, the only good port on the northern end of the island, commands the greater part of the whole length of the Rio Grande, affording entrance by boats to a full third of the interior of the island. It is up this river that Captain McCalla is sending steam launches carrying supplies to Major Batchelder.

The latter officer, with a few negro soldiers of the Twenty-fourth infantry, has just completed one of the most daring marches connected with the present campaign. Detaching his little force from MacArthur a week ago, he drove straight through the centre of the island northward, cutting loose from his communications and bound to reach Aparri or be captured or killed in the attempt. Captain McCalla's advance indicates that he has succeeded, being now within touch of the navy on the north shore.

Bates' report from the southern archipelago has allayed the apprehension excited for the security of things there growing out of the agitation by the misleading publications of important insurgent victories.

Text of the Agreement Transmitted to the Senate—Salaries of the Sultan and the Sub-Chiefs.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—The following is the text of the agreement between General Bates and the sultan of Jolo, better known as the Jolo treaty, which has been sent to the senate by the president:

Agreement.

Between Brigadier General John C. Bates, representing the United States of the one part, and his highness the sultan of Jolo, the Dato Rajah Muda, the Dato Attik, the Dato Calbi, and the Dato Joakman, of the other part, it being understood that this agreement will be in full force only when approved by the governor general of the Philippine islands, and confirmed by the president of the United States and will be subject to future modifications by the mutual consent of the parties in interest.

Article 1.—The sovereignty of the United States over the whole archipelago of Jolo and its dependencies is declared and acknowledged.

Article 2.—The United States flag will be used in the archipelago of Jolo and its dependencies on land and sea.

Article 3.—The rights and dignities of his highness, the sultan and his datus, shall be fully respected; the Moros shall not be interfered with on account of their religion; all their religious customs shall be respected; and no one shall be persecuted on account of his religion.

Article 4.—While the United States may occupy and control such points in the archipelago of Jolo as public interests seem to demand, encroachment will not be made upon the lands immediately about the residence of his highness, the sultan, unless military necessity requires such occupation in case of war with a foreign power, and where the property of individuals is taken, due compensation will be made in each case.

Any person can purchase land in the archipelago of Jolo and hold the same by obtaining the consent of the sultan and coming to a satisfactory agreement with the owner of the land, and such purchase shall immediately be registered in the proper office of the United States government.

Article 9.—Where crimes and offenses are committed by Moros against Moros, the government of the sultan will bring to trial and punishment the criminals and offenders, who will be delivered to the government of the sultan by the United States authorities if in their possession. In all other cases persons charged with crimes or offenses will be delivered to the United States authorities for trial and punishment.

Article 12.—At present Americans or foreigners wishing to go into the country should state their wishes to the Moro authorities and ask for an escort, but it is hoped that this will become unnecessary as we know each other better.

Article 13.—The United States will give full protection to the sultan and his subjects in case any foreign nation should attempt to impose upon them.

Article 14.—The United States will not sell the islands of Jolo or any other island of the Jolo archipelago to any foreign nation without the consent of the sultan of Jolo.

OFFICIAL DISPATCHES.

Otis And Watson Sent Messages—Latter Ascribed Tirona's Surrender to Patriotic Motives.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—General Otis sent dispatches containing the following:

"MANILA, Dec. 13.—Fifty men of the navy and 50 men of the army transported by the navy, took Laoag on the 10th inst. General young, with staff, followed the next day. He reports Howze, with a battalion of the Thirty-fourth, followed by a portion of the Thirty-third infantry, passed north to Pidding, east of Laoag. March's battalion of the Thirty-fourth was at Cayan, province of Leganto, on the 7th inst. The Third cavalry was along the coast and in the mountains pursuing the enemy. Young states his extreme northern force passed over the mountains, driving the insurgents under General Tino, who was badly wounded, killing 50 and wounding many. He made large captures of rifles and property, with all insurgent transportation, and released all the Spanish prisoners in that section, to the number of about 2,000. Our casualties were two wounded. Our troops are still pursuing the remnant of Tino's command.

"Colonel March's battalion of the Thirty-third reported from Cayan, Leganto province, on the 7th inst. that he had destroyed Aguinaldo's bodyguard, killed General Gregorio Pilar, received the surrender of General Concepcion and staff, killed and wounded 32 insurgents, released 575 Spanish prisoners, including 150 friars, and captured considerable property. His loss was two killed and nine wounded. My information is that Aguinaldo has disguised his individuality, abandoned his troops, and is in hiding in the province of Benguet."

"MANILA, Dec. 13.—Admiral Watson informs me that the province of Cagayan surrendered unconditionally to Captain McCalla of the Newark on the 11th inst., all arms being surrendered. Major Batchelder is 90 miles south of Aparri, and his command is in good condition. Navy will take supplies to Batchelder in a launch at once. This surrender doubtless includes the province of Isabela.

"General Bates at Zamboanga reports affairs there satisfactory. Nearly all rifles surrendered; MacArthur, at Bayambang, reports that he holds as prisoner of war Mabini, the ablest of insurgents and founder of the late government."

Two cablegrams from Admiral Watson, at Cavite, read as follows:

"CAVITE, Dec. 13.—Burwell reports that the Wheeling landed a naval force and a detachment of troops, Kaiser commanding, 16 miles northwest of Luzon, and attacked the city, yesterday, releasing 1,500 Spaniards. Am holding at the request of General Young. No casualties.

"CAVITE, Dec. 13.—General Tirona, commanding Filipinos, unconditionally surrendered Aparri and Cagayan province to Captain McCalla of the Newark on Dec. 11. Princeton and Helena at present in the river. All arms and ammunition surrendered. Tirona surrendered from patriotic motives to prevent further bloodshed. He was appointed civil governor by McCalla, subject to the approval of Otis. Helena was dispatched up the river with stores for Batchelder's troops, 90 miles south of Aparri. Aparri and Eugana light-houses relighted. WATSON."

CORPS WIPED OUT.

Battle at Magersfontein Fearfully Bloody.

THE BRITISH HAD TO RETIRE.

Burgers Held Their Position, From Which the English Were Unable to Dislodge Them—The Loss of the British Was Extremely Heavy.

LONDON, Dec. 14.—General Forestier-Walker, telegraphing from Cape Town, sent a dispatch from Lord Methuen dated Modder River, Dec. 12, which contains the following:

"As the Boers occupied their trenches strongly this morning I retired in perfect order here, where I am in security.

"I have gathered from some of the prisoners and from our men with the ambulances, who talked with the Boers, that the enemy's losses were terrible, some corps being completely wiped out. The Boers have been most kind to my wounded."

A dispatch from General Methuen, dated Dec. 12, contained the following:

"Our artillery shelled a very strong position held by the enemy in a long, high kopje, from 4 until dusk, Sunday. It rained hard last night. The Highland brigade attacked at daybreak on Monday the south end of the kopje. The attack was properly timed, but failed. The guards were ordered to protect the Highlands' right and rear.

"The cavalry and mounted infantry, with a howitzer artillery battery, attacked the enemy on the right and the guards on the left, supported by field artillery and howitzer artillery. They shelled the position from daybreak and at 1:15 I sent the Gordons to support the Highland brigade. The troops held their own in front of the enemy's entrenchments until dusk, the positions extending, including the kopje, for a distance of six miles toward the Modder river. Today I am holding my position and entrenching myself. I had to face at least 12,000 men. Our loss was great."

The war office received a dispatch from General Forestier-Walker, dated Cape Town, Tuesday, Dec. 12, containing the following:

"Methuen wires that General Wauchope was killed in action yesterday."

Major General Andrew H. Wauchope, C. B., C. M. G., entered the army in 1865, was promoted colonel in 1888, served in the Ashanti war in 1873, in the Egyptian war in 1882, in the Nile expedition of 1884-85. He was in command of the First brigade of the Egyptian expeditionary force in 1898. General Wauchope had been wounded four times, three times severely.

A dispatch from Orange River contained the following: "Three hundred and wounded men have arrived here from the Modder river."

LONDON, Dec. 14.—Julian Ralph, describing the battle at Magersfontein in a special dispatch to The Daily Mail said:

"The Boers were entrenched at Magersfontein, four miles north of Modder river. At dawn Monday the Highlanders, advancing across the veldt, were suddenly subjected to a murderous fire from the trenches about 200 yards in front. The greater part of the fearful loss of the day was thus suffered in a single minute.

"Startled and overwhelmed, the brigade retired quickly, but soon rallied and retained their position. This was on the left.

"On the right the Guards' brigade advanced across the veldt against other trenches and fought an invisible foe for 15 hours.

"At 11 in the morning the Gordon Highlanders were sent forward. The Boers allowed them to pass one line of trenches and then enfiladed them. We raked the Boer trenches with artillery throughout the day. The fighting only ceased with nightfall."

FRERE CAMP, Natal, Tuesday, Dec. 12.—The Boers are still shelling Ladysmith. The heat is terrific.

MODDER RIVER, Tuesday, Dec. 12.—The British casualties included the Marquis of Winchester, major of the Second battalion Coldstream Guards, who was killed, and Colonel Downham of the First battalion Gordon Highlanders, who was mortally wounded. When the Highlanders met the murderous pointblank fire of the Boers, about 200 were mown down. The Black Watch regiment, on reinforcing, was able to muster only 160 men. The Boers lost heavily in the trenches and also in the wire entanglements when they came into the open in an attempt to make a flank attack on the British.

DEMOCRATIC SUPPORT.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—The pressure for time to speak on the currency bill in the house continued, as most of the members desired to make contributions to the literature of the occasion. Much of it, however, seemed to be for home consumption.

As far as known 12 Democrats, eight from New York, two from Pennsylvania and one each from Maryland and Massachusetts, will vote for the bill. Among the speakers were Messrs. Fowler of New Jersey, Lacey of Iowa, Cushman of Washington, Hamilton of Michigan and Burton of Ohio, Republicans, for the bill, and Messrs. Brundage of Arkansas, Wheeler of Kentucky, Benton of Missouri, Fox of Mississippi, Pierce of Tennessee, Sulzer of New York, Cowherd of Missouri, Democrats, and Mr. Bell of Colorado, Populist, against it.

The house adopted a resolution for a holiday recess from Wednesday, Dec. 20, to Wednesday, Jan. 3. Mr. Richardson, the minority leader, asked that the house adjourn over today to give the members an opportunity to participate in the Washington memorial exercises, but Mr. Payson, the majority leader, objected, saying George Washington, if alive, he thought would be in favor of the house proceeding with the transaction of its business.

At the night session last night the feature was a characteristic speech by Mr. Lantry (Rep., N. C.), the only Republican who voted for the Teller Resolution in the Fifty-fourth congress, in explanation of his change of position in favor of the gold standard. The gold standard had stood the test of experience, he claimed, and had proved itself the ideal standard. The other speakers were Messrs. Robinson (Dem., Ind.), Kleberg (Dem., Tex.), Rixey (Dem., Va.), Coonle (Dem., Mo.), Zener (Dem., Ind.), Kitchener (Dem., N. C.) and Heary (Dem., Tex.), all against the bill.

senatorial vacancy caused by the death of Hayward.

Baseball League Meeting.

NEW YORK, Dec. 14.—The meeting of the National league of professional baseball clubs was continued and the league representatives will probably be in session until Saturday. Innumerable perplexing questions have come up for solution, and even after the close of the six-hour session today, it was officially announced that nothing had been done.

Battle at Magersfontein Fearfully Bloody.

THE BRITISH HAD TO RETIRE.

Burgers Held Their Position, From Which the English Were Unable to Dislodge Them—The Loss of the British Was Extremely Heavy.

LONDON, Dec. 14.—General Forestier-Walker, telegraphing from Cape Town, sent a dispatch from Lord Methuen dated Modder River, Dec. 12, which contains the following:

"As the Boers occupied their trenches strongly this morning I retired in perfect order here, where I am in security.

"I have gathered from some of the prisoners and from our men with the ambulances, who talked with the Boers, that the enemy's losses were terrible, some corps being completely wiped out. The Boers have been most kind to my wounded."

A dispatch from General Methuen, dated Dec. 12, contained the following:

"Our artillery shelled a very strong position held by the enemy in a long, high kopje, from 4 until dusk, Sunday. It rained hard last night. The Highland brigade attacked at daybreak on Monday the south end of the kopje. The attack was properly timed, but failed. The guards were ordered to protect the Highlands' right and rear.

"The cavalry and mounted infantry, with a howitzer artillery battery, attacked the enemy on the right and the guards on the left, supported by field artillery and howitzer artillery. They shelled the position from daybreak and at 1:15 I sent the Gordons to support the Highland brigade. The troops held their own in front of the enemy's entrenchments until dusk, the positions extending, including the kopje, for a distance of six miles toward the Modder river. Today I am holding my position and entrenching myself. I had to face at least 12,000 men. Our loss was great."

The war office received a dispatch from General Forestier-Walker, dated Cape Town, Tuesday, Dec. 12, containing the following:

"Methuen wires that General Wauchope was killed in action yesterday."

Major General Andrew H. Wauchope, C. B., C. M. G., entered the army in 1865, was promoted colonel in 1888, served in the Ashanti war in 1873, in the Egyptian war in 1882, in the Sudan expedition of 1884, and in the Nile expedition of 1884-85. He was in command of the First brigade of the Egyptian expeditionary force in 1898. General Wauchope had been wounded four times, three times severely.

A dispatch from Orange River contained the following: "Three hundred and wounded men have arrived here from the Modder river."

LONDON, Dec. 14.—Julian Ralph, describing the battle at Magersfontein in a special dispatch to The Daily Mail said:

"The Boers were entrenched at Magersfontein, four miles north of Modder river. At dawn Monday the Highlanders, advancing across the veldt, were suddenly subjected to a murderous fire from the trenches about 200 yards in front. The greater part of the fearful loss of the day was thus suffered in a single minute.

"Startled and overwhelmed, the brigade retired quickly, but soon rallied and retained their position. This was on the left.

"On the right the Guards' brigade advanced across the veldt against other trenches and fought an invisible foe for 15 hours.

"At 11 in the morning the Gordon Highlanders were sent forward. The Boers allowed them to pass one line of trenches and then enfiladed them. We raked the Boer trenches with artillery throughout the day. The fighting only ceased with nightfall."

FREEZE CAMP, Natal, Tuesday, Dec. 12.—The Boers are still shelling Ladysmith. The heat is terrific.

MODDER RIVER, Tuesday, Dec. 12.—The British casualties included the Marquis of Winchester, major of the Second battalion Coldstream Guards, who was killed, and Colonel Downham of the First battalion Gordon Highlanders, who was mortally wounded. When the Highlanders met the murderous pointblank fire of the Boers, about 200 were mown down. The Black Watch regiment, on reinforcing, was able to muster only 160 men. The Boers lost heavily in the trenches and also in the wire entanglements when they came into the open in an attempt to make a flank attack on the British.

DEMOCRATIC SUPPORT.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—The pressure for time to speak on the currency bill in the house continued, as most of the members desired to make contributions to the literature of the occasion. Much of it, however, seemed to be for home consumption.

As far as known 12 Democrats, eight from New York, two from Pennsylvania and one each from Maryland and Massachusetts, will vote for the bill. Among the speakers were Messrs. Fowler of New Jersey, Lacey of Iowa, Cushman of Washington, Hamilton of Michigan and Burton of Ohio, Republicans, for the bill, and Messrs. Brundage of Arkansas, Wheeler of Kentucky, Benton of Missouri, Fox of Mississippi, Plerce of Tennessee, Sulzer of New York, Cowherd of Missouri, Otley of Virginia, Gains of Texas, Democrats, and Mr. Bell of Colorado, Populist, against it.

The house adopted a resolution for a holiday recess from Wednesday, Dec. 20, to Wednesday, Jan. 3. Mr. Richardson, the minority leader, asked that the house adjourn over today to give the members an opportunity to participate in the Washington memorial exercises, but Mr. Payson, the majority leader, objected, saying George Washington, if alive, he thought would be in favor of the house proceeding with the transaction of its business.

At the night session last night the feature was a characteristic speech by Mr. Lanney (Rep., N. C.), the only Republican who voted for the Teller Resolution in the Fifty-fourth congress, in explanation of his change of position in favor of the gold standard. The gold standard had stood the test of experience, he claimed, and had proved itself the ideal standard. The other speakers were Messrs. Robinson (Dem., Ind.), Kleberg (Dem., Tex.), Rixey (Dem., Va.), Coonae (Dem., Mo.), Zener (Dem., Ind.), Kitchan (Dem., N. C.) and Henry (Dem., Tex.), all against the bill.

THE EVENING NEWS REVIEW.

15TH YEAR. NO. 159.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., THURSDAY, DEC. 14, 1899.

TWO CENTS

REAL LEADER CAUGHT

Mabini, Power Behind Aguinaldo, a Prisoner.

BOLD STROKE OF CAPTAIN MCCALLA.

Surrender to Him of Cagayan Province, Taken With Holdings of MacArthur and Young, Put Northern End of Luzon Technically in Our Possession.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—The secretary of war regarded the information conveyed in General Otis' dispatches as the most important that has come to hand for months past. The capture of Mabini reported by MacArthur from Bayambang, was especially gratifying. It is believed that the Filipino leader was trying to make his way across country from Bangued, where he had been obliged to part company with Aguinaldo a fortnight ago, to the east coast of Luzon. The members of the Philippine commission now in Washington declare without reserve that Mabini was the head and front of the insurrection. Aguinaldo was only a figurehead. Mabini was also the financial strength of the movement, as without his backing Aguinaldo would have had no credit.

Next in importance to the capture of Mabini in the developments of the campaign was the bold stroke of Captain McCalla of the Newark in capturing the whole province of Cagayan. With MacArthur holding the province of Isabela, adjoining, and Young's holdings on the opposite or western shore of the upper peninsula, the American forces are now in technical occupation of the whole northern end of Luzon from a point just north of the gulf of Lingayen. McCalla posted at the port of Aparri, the only good port on the northern end of the island, commands the greater part of the whole length of the Ito Grande, affording entrance by boats to a full third of the interior of the island. It is up this river that Captain McCalla is sending steam launches carrying supplies to Major Batchelor.

The latter officer, with a few negro soldiers of the Twenty-fourth infantry, has just completed one of the most daring marches connected with the present campaign. Detaching his little force from MacArthur a week ago, he drove straight through the center of the island northward, cutting loose from his communications and bound to reach Aparri or be captured or killed in the attempt. Captain McCalla's advance indicates that he has succeeded, being now within touch of the navy on the north shore.

Bates' report from the southern archipelago has allayed the apprehension excited for the security of things there growing out of the agitation by the misleading publications of important insurgent victories.

TREATY WITH OUR SULTAN.

Text of the Agreement Transmitted to the Senate—Salaries of the Sultan and the Sub-Chiefs.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—The following is the text of the agreement between General Bates and the sultan of Jolo, better known as the Jolo treaty, which has been sent to the senate by the president:

Agreement.

Bates, representing the United States of the one part, and his highness the sultan of Jolo, the Dato Rajah Muda, the Dato Attik, the Dato Calbi, and the Dato Joakanain, of the other part, it being understood that this agreement will be in full force only when approved by the governor general of the Philippine Islands and confirmed by the president of the United States and will be subject to future modifications by the mutual consent of the parties in interest.

Article 1.—The sovereignty of the United States over the whole archipelago of Jolo and its dependencies is declared and acknowledged.

Article 2.—The United States flag will be used in the archipelago of Jolo and its dependencies on land and sea.

Article 3.—The rights and dignities of his highness the sultan and his dates, shall be fully respected; the Moros shall not be interfered with on account of their religion; all their religious customs shall be respected; and no one shall be persecuted on account of his religion.

Article 4.—While the United States may occupy and control such points in the archipelago of Jolo as public interests seem to demand, encroachment will not be made upon the lands immediately about the residence of his highness, the sultan, unless military necessity requires such occupation in case of war with a foreign power, and where the property of individuals is taken, due compensation will be made in each case.

Any person can purchase land in the archipelago of Jolo and need not obtain the consent of the sultan and coming to a satisfactory agreement with the owner of the land, and such purchase shall immediately be registered in the proper office of the United States government.

Article 5.—All trade in domestic products of the archipelago of Jolo, when carried on by the sultan and his people with any part of the Philippine Islands and when conducted under the American flag shall be free, unlimited and undisturbed.

Article 6.—The sultan of Jolo shall be allowed to communicate direct with the governor general of the Philippine Islands in making complaint against the commanding officer of Jolo, or against any naval commander.

Article 7.—The introduction of firearms and war material is forbidden, except under specific authority of the governor general of the Philippine Islands.

Article 8.—Piracy must be suppressed and the sultan and his dates agree to heartily cooperate with the United States authorities to that end and to make every possible effort to arrest and bring to justice all persons engaged in piracy.

Article 12.—At present Americans or foreigners wishing to go into the country should state their wishes to the Moro authorities and ask for an escort, but it is hoped that this will become unnecessary as we know each other better.

Article 13.—The United States will give full protection to the sultan and his subjects in case any foreign nation should attempt to impose upon them.

Article 14.—The United States will not sell the islands of Jolo or any other island of the Jolo archipelago to any foreign nation without the consent of the sultan of Jolo.

Signed in triplicate, in English and Sulu, at Jolo, this 24th day of August, A. D. 1899.
(Arabic) Abil 1317.
J. C. Bates,
Brigadier General United States Volunteers.

Sultan of Jolo,
Dato Rajah Muda,
Dato Attik, Dato Calbi,
Dato Joakanain;

OFFICIAL DISPATCHES.

Otis and Watson Sent Messages—Latter Ascribed Tirona's Surrender to Patriotic Motives.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—General Otis sent dispatches containing the following:

"MANILA, Dec. 13.—Fifty men of the navy and 50 men of the army transported by the navy, took Laoag on the 10th inst. General Young, with staff, followed the next day. He reports Howze, with a battalion of the Thirty-fourth, followed by a portion of the Thirty-third infantry, passed north to Pidding, east of Laoag. March's battalion of the Thirty-fourth was at Cayan, province of Leganto, on the 7th inst. The Third cavalry was along the coast and in the mountains pursuing the enemy. Young states his extreme northern force passed over the mountains, driving the insurgents under General Tino, who was badly wounded, killing 50 and wounding many. He made large captures of rifles and property, with all insurgent transportation, and released all the Spanish prisoners in that section, to the number of about 2,000. Our casualties were two wounded. Our troops are still pursuing the remnant of Tino's command.

"Colonel March's battalion of the Thirty-third reported from Cayan, Lepanto province, on the 7th inst. that he had destroyed Aguinaldo's bodyguard, killed General Gregorio Pilar, received the surrender of General Concepcion and staff, killed and wounded 52 insurgents, released 575 Spanish prisoners, including 150 friars, and captured considerable property. His loss was two killed and nine wounded. My information is that Aguinaldo has disguised his individuality, abandoned his troops, and is in hiding in the province of Benguet."

"MANILA, Dec. 13.—Admiral Watson informs me that the province of Cagayan surrendered unconditionally to Captain McCalla of the Newark on the 11th inst., all arms being surrendered. Major Batchelder is 90 miles south of Aparri, and his command is in good condition. Navy will take supplies to Batchelder in a launch at once. This surrender doubtless includes the province of Isabela.

"General Bates at Zamboanga reports affairs there satisfactory. Nearly all rifles surrendered; MacArthur, at Bayambang, reports that he holds as prisoner of war Mabini, the ablest of insurgents and founder of the late government."

Two cablegrams from Admiral Watson, at Cavite, read as follows:

"CAVITE, Dec. 13.—Burwell reports that the Wheeling landed a naval force and a detachment of troops, Kaiser commanding, 16 miles northwest of Luzon, and attacked the city, yesterday, releasing 1,500 Spaniards. Am holding at the request of General Young. No casualties.

"CAVITE, Dec. 13.—General Tirona, commanding Filipinos, unconditionally surrendered Aparri and Cagayan province to Captain McCalla of the Newark on Dec. 11. Princeton and Helena at present in the river. All arms and ammunition surrendered. Tirona surrendered from patriotic motives to prevent further bloodshed. He was appointed civil governor by McCalla, subject to the approval of Otis. Helena was dispatched up the river with stores for Batchelder's troops, 90 miles south of Aparri. Aparri and Engana light-houses relighted. WATSON."

Surrender With Honors of War.

MANILA, Dec. 14.—General Tirona surrendered to Captain McCalla with all the honors of war.

Captain McCalla reviewed the insurgents, and General Tirona reviewed the naval forces. The Americans presented arms while the insurgents were stacking theirs.

THE EAST END.

FINLEY HAS RESIGNED

Objected to Mr. Marshall's Talk About Him.

A CHURCH IS FREE FROM DEBT

Second Presbyterian Raised a Large Amount Last Sunday Evening—Evangelist Ryland Will Conduct a Series of Meetings in the Suburb.

Fireman Robert Finley, who has been employed at the East End fire station for several months, has sent his resignation to the street committee of council. It took effect yesterday. Mr. Finley will go back to his trade, that of a kilnman. When seen by a reporter yesterday Finley said that he did not think Councilman Marshall did right in talking to reporters the way he did Monday afternoon, but instead he should have come to him personally. "The weather has been very bad of late, and I did not propose to work in the rain," concluded Mr. Finley.

PAID THE DEBT.

Over $400 Was Raised at Second Presbyterian Last Sunday Evening.

For over a year the Second Presbyterian church has been in debt to the extent of $400, but today that debt is a matter of the past. Sunday evening, after the regular services were concluded, Rev. N. M. Crowe, the pastor, requested the congregation to remain, and soon afterwards it was announced what the trustees intended to do. The congregation went to an expense of $1,160 last year to improve the building, and at that time $760 were raised to pay on the work. Sunday night the balance, $400, was raised, and today all debts are paid and a nice balance is in the hands of the treasurer.

NOT RECOGNIZED.

This Explanation Is Made In Order to End Their Agony.

If the young couple who were met this morning, shortly after the midnight hour, in the old Bradshaw addition, or Bradshaw avenue, will read this article, he and she will no doubt feel much relieved when they are informed that the use of their hands over their expressive and handsome countenances prevented recognition. It would be advisable, however, to secure masks for future promenades, as the method of last night was ridiculous in the extreme.

AN EVANGELIST.

Revival Services at Second Presbyterian Will Commence Dec. 31.

Arrangements have been completed whereby a revival service lasting from 7 to 10 days will commence in the Second Presbyterian church Dec. 31. Rev. N. M. Crowe, the pastor, has secured the services of Evangelist Ryland, who is now conducting a series of meetings at Industry. Mr. Ryland was in East End yesterday calling on Reverend Crowe when final arrangements were completed. The revival gives promise of being one of the best ever held in the suburb.

REMOVE THE POLE.

Complaint Made About a Telephone Pole on Pennsylvania Avenue.

Many complaints have been made by teamsters driving on Mulberry street about the telephone pole at the corner of that street and Pennsylvania avenue. The pole is standing out in the roadway about two feet from the curb and there is no room for a wagon to pass between it and the street railway tracks. Inspector Harris has stated he would notify the company to remove the obstruction but nothing has been done yet.

Personal.

Silas Miller, of Jefferson county, and Miss Miller of Cleveland, cousins, are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Baird on Mulberry street.

A New Comer.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Day, of Pennsylvania avenue, will be pleased to learn a little girl came to their home yesterday.

Another Store.

Another butcher shop has been opened in the East End. Parties from Smith's Ferry are backing the venture.

ON THE RIVER.

Wharf Boat Crowded With Freight Awaiting First Southern Boat.

The river at noon today stopped rising after it reached a height of 15 3 feet, the largest mark reached for almost seven months. Coal is going south in large quantities.

Many boats tied up at Walker's during the night and the flashing of their electric search lights presented a beautiful sight. Much wreckage is going past this place, and as the towboat Enterprise was passing this morning the wreckage of two barges went past on the Virginia side. Several unsuccessful attempts were made to capture it.

Much freight is being sent south by the boats from this place. The wharf boat is crowded with casks and crates, awaiting the first Cincinnati packet. The Ben Hur went up this morning, being 12 hours behind time. It is due south this evening.

JUDGE'S COMMISSION

Issued to W. W. Hole by Governor Bushnell-Smith May Resign.

Attorney W. W. Hole, of Salem, who was elected common pleas judge at the recent election, has received his commission from Governor Bushnell. It was issued last Friday. His commission as judge takes effect November 1, 1900, and is for five years from that date. There is some talk of Judge P. M. Smith resigning, and in that case Mr. Hole will probably be appointed to fill the unexpired term.

THE RECEPTION.

The Farewell to Secretary Platts and Family Was a Pleasant Affair.

The farewell reception accorded Secretary Platts and family, given last night in the gymnasium room of the Y. M. C. A. building, was an exceedingly pleasant affair. Choice refreshments were served and social enjoyment was afterward in order until almost the midnight hour. Secretary Platts has made himself generally popular in our city, while his estimable wife has won golden opinions in the minds and hearts of the Christian workers of East Liverpool, and her large circle of lady friends will miss her sorely.

A funny feature of last night's program was the indulgence of athletic exercises, on parallel and horizontal bars, by some of the baldheads present, notably two prominent physicians and a newspaper man. Their efforts to chin the horizontal bar would have caused a chimpanzee to fall from his perch from laughter.

Passing the handball and exercise in basket ball were indulged in by a number of lady visitors, who proved themselves experts in making goals. The reception will long be remembered with pleasure by those who were so fortunate as to be present.

WINE OF CARDUI

A SURE MEDICINE.

HANDSON, VA., Dec. 31.

I have been suffering from female weakness for four years, and have taken many medicines, but Wine of Cardui and Backdraught have done more for me than anything else.

MRS. CAROLINE EVANS.

McELREE'S
Wine of Cardui

It is a mistake to take any and every kind of medicine when you are sick. There is danger in it. Most of the so-called cures for "female weakness" do nothing more than deaden the pain temporarily, and when the effect wears away the patient is weaker and sicker than before. It is never wise to take chances. You have only one life, and that is dear and precious. If you have any pain, ache, disorder or weakness in the feminine organs, nothing will help you like Wine of Cardui. It helps do away with morning sickness during the early stages of pregnancy, and modifies the pains of childbirth; recovery is rapid and future health is assured. The Wine is purely vegetable, being made of herbs whose medicinal properties act directly upon the organs of womanhood. It is a long-tried remedy, and has many years of success behind it. It is sure. Why take a chance medicine when you can get a sure medicine?

Objected to Mr. Marshall's Talk About Him.

A CHURCH IS FREE FROM DEBT

Second Presbyterian Raised a Large Amount Last Sunday Evening—Evangelist Ryland Will Conduct a Series of Meetings in the Suburb.

Fireman Robert Finley, who has been employed at the East End fire station for several months, has sent his resignation to the street committee of council. It took effect yesterday. Mr. Finley will go back to his trade, that of a kilnman. When seen by a reporter yesterday Finley said that he did not think Councilman Marshall did right in talking to reporters the way he did Monday afternoon, but instead he should have come to him personally. "The weather has been very bad of late, and I did not propose to work in the rain," concluded Mr. Finley.

PAID THE DEBT.

Over $400 Was Raised at Second Presbyterian Last Sunday Evening.

For over a year the Second Presbyterian church has been in debt to the extent of $400, but today that debt is a matter of the past. Sunday evening, after the regular services were concluded, Rev. N. M. Crowe, the pastor, requested the congregation to remain, and soon afterwards it was announced what the trustees intended to do. The congregation went to an expense of $1,160 last year to improve the building, and at that time $760 were raised to pay on the work. Sunday night the balance, $400, was raised, and today all debts are paid and a nice balance is in the hands of the treasurer.

NOT RECOGNIZED.

This Explanation Is Made In Order to End Their Agony.

If the young couple who were met this morning, shortly after the midnight hour, in the old Bradshaw addition, or Bradshaw avenue, will read this article, he and she will no doubt feel much relieved when they are informed that the use of their hands over their expressive and handsome countenances prevented recognition. It would be advisable, however, to secure masks for future promenades, as the method of last night was ridiculous in the extreme.

AN EVANGELIST.

Revival Services at Second Presbyterian Will Commence Dec. 31.

Arrangements have been completed whereby a revival service lasting from 7 to 10 days will commence in the Second Presbyterian church Dec. 31. Rev. N. M. Crowe, the pastor, has secured the services of Evangelist Ryland, who is now conducting a series of meetings at Industry. Mr. Ryland was in East End yesterday calling on Reverend Crowe when final arrangements were completed. The revival gives promise of being one of the best ever held in the suburb.

Many complaints have been made by teamsters driving on Mulberry street about the telephone pole at the corner of that street and Pennsylvania avenue. The pole is standing out in the roadway about two feet from the curb and there

Wharf Boat Crowded With Freight Awaiting First Southern Boat.

The river at noon today stopped rising after it reached a height of 15 3 feet, the largest mark reached for almost seven months. Coal is going south in large quantities.

Many boats tied up at Walker's during the night and the flashing of their electric search lights presented a beautiful sight. Much wreckage is going past this place, and as the towboat Enterprise was passing this morning the wreckage of two barges went past on the Virginia side. Several unsuccessful attempts were made to capture it.

Much freight is being sent south by the boats from this place. The wharf boat is crowded with casks and crates, awaiting the first Cincinnati packet. The Ben Hur went up this morning, being 12 hours behind time. It is due south this evening.

MOORE LOST MONEY

Stole Some Lumber and Cut His Large Rope.

THE GARDNERS AWARDED $3800

For the Ground Appropriated by the Panhandle Railroad Company—Three New Sidings Being Built at the Rolling Mill. News of Chester and About the District.

Robert Moore, a coal dealer, lost much money near Newell's ferry yesterday afternoon when a flat sunk. A lot of lumber was stolen and a rope that would reach from one side of the river to the other was destroyed. At 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon Moore went to the ferry and found the plug in the bottom of the flat had been taken out. The boat was sinking rapidly, but by hard work was towed to the shore and saved.

Last night 30 large pieces of lumber was stolen from a small flat and the only rope about these parts that would reach across the river was cut to pieces. Moore places his loss at $100 and offers a reward for the capture of the people who cut the rope.

THREE SIDINGS.

Railroad Company Doing Much Work About the Rolling Mill Plant.

The grading for the three sidings to built from the main line of the railroad to the Chester rolling mill has been commenced, under the supervision of several engineers from the main office of the railroad company in Pittsburg. The grading is being done by Contractor Archie Seevers, and about 10,000 yards of earth is to be removed. One of the sidings will be built in the mill building the other two on the west side of the mill, and they will not be completed until the extension is built that far.

MORE MONEY.

Jury In Condemnation Cases Awarded Gardner Heirs $3,800.

By asking a jury trial the Gardner heirs of Chester were awarded $3,800 damages last night against the Panhandle Railroad company. The committee appointed by the court to fix the damages for appropriating property awarded the Gardners $3,000. E. D. Marshall, who had charge of their case, stated today that it is likely that the matter would be carried to a higher court, although nothing definite in this respect has been done yet.

MUDDY PLACES.

Horses Unable to Work In Some Parts of Chester.

Contractors McLaughlin and Seevers, who are grading several streets on the tracts of the mill company and the Southside Land company, are having much trouble with their work on account of the terrible condition of the ground. Horses become fastened in the mire and are unable to work, and Tuesday 12 of McLaughlin's horses were stuck in the mud. Seevers had eight horses off yesterday on this account.

Skiffs Were Lost.

Several skiffs moored to the Virginia side were carried down the river by the swift current yesterday afternoon. Their owners had pulled them far up on the shore, thinking they would be safe, and failed to tie them.

Pulled the Boat Up.

Edwin Snyder's boat house, that has been used by the workmen on the extension as a boarding house, was brought up from the narrows yesterday and tied to the shore opposite the Broadway wharf.

A Horse Died.

A five year old colt owned by Contractor Thomas McNally, of the Cumberland extension, died late yesterday afternoon. It had been working on the road but a short time.

C. Hill, of Ester, Pa., carpenter, who says: "For a year I suffered from pain across my back, difficulty with the kidney secretions and was naturally, anxious to procure some treatment which would check if not radically cure the trouble. Advised by a friend, I procured Doan's kidney pills at the W. & W. pharmacy and I want East Liverpool people to thoroughly grasp this fact, before I used the entire contents of the box I was cured. To prove that my convictions were laid on solid foundation I have since purchased for a neighbor of mine three boxes of Doan's kidney pills. They cured him. Now, when a preparation which cured me in the condition I was in and also my neighbor, a preparation which is held in such reputation in and around East Liverpool that an acquaintance of mine advised me through a newspaper statement to obtain it, when that preparation performs exactly what it promises what can be expected of any resident of East Liverpool suffering from kidney complaint who will not take advantage of his neighbor's experience and profit by his opinions."

MOORE LOST MONEY

Stole Some Lumber and Cut His Large Rope.

THE GARDNERS AWARDED $3800

For the Ground Appropriated by the Panhandle Railroad Company—Three New Sidings Being Built at the Rolling Mill. News of Chester and About the District.

Robert Moore, a coal dealer, lost much money near Newell's ferry yesterday afternoon when a flat sunk. A lot of lumber was stolen and a rope that would reach from one side of the river to the other was destroyed. At 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon Moore went to the ferry and found the plug in the bottom of the flat had been taken out. The boat was sinking rapidly, but by hard work was towed to the shore and saved.

Last night 30 large pieces of lumber was stolen from a small flat and the only rope about these parts that would reach across the river was cut to pieces. Moore places his loss at $100 and offers a reward for the capture of the people who cut the rope.

THREE SIDINGS.

Railroad Company Doing Much Work About the Rolling Mill Plant.

The grading for the three sidings to be built from the main line of the railroad to the Chester rolling mill has been commenced, under the supervision of several engineers from the main office of the railroad company in Pittsburgh. The grading is being done by Contractor Archie Seevers, and about 10,000 yards of earth is to be removed. One of the sidings will be built in the mill building, the other two on the west side of the mill, and they will not be completed until the extension is built that far.

MORE MONEY.

Jury In Condemnation Cases Awarded Gardner Heirs $3,800.

By asking a jury trial the Gardner heirs of Chester were awarded $3,800 damages last night against the Panhandle Railroad company. The committee appointed by the court to fix the damages for appropriating property awarded the Gardners $3,000. E. D. Marshall, who had charge of their case, stated today that it is likely that the matter would be carried to a higher court, although nothing definite in this respect has been done yet.

MUDDY PLACES.

Horses Unable to Work in Some Parts of Chester.

Contractors McLaughlin and Seevers, who are grading several streets on the tracts of the mill company and the Southside Land company, are having much trouble with their work on account of the terrible condition of the ground. Horses become fastened in the mire and are unable to work, and Tuesday 12 of McLaughlin's horses were stuck in the mud. Seevers had eight horses off yesterday on this account.

Skiffs Were Lost.

Several skiffs moored to the Virginia side were carried down the river by the swift current yesterday afternoon. Their owners had pulled them far up on the shore, thinking they would be safe, and failed to tie them.

Pulled the Boat Up.

Edwin Snyder's boat house, that has been used by the workmen on the extension as a boarding house, was brought up from the narrows yesterday and tied to the shore opposite the Broadway wharf.

A Horse Died.

A five year old colt owned by Contractor Thomas McNally, of the Cumberland extension, died late yesterday afternoon. It had been working on the road but a short time.

GOEBEL is beginning to believe that Bryan's help did it.

THE price of coal is valiantly trying to keep up with the rise in the river.

It's beginning to look as if it would be made unanimous for McKinley next year.

EVERY doubtful state where Bryan talked last fall, except his own, went Republican.

ROPER of New Jersey seems to be the champion swindler. Victims from all parts of the country admit his success
as a roper-in.

THE news that Aguinaldo will henceforth confine himself to guerilla warfare confirms the impression that he is making a monkey of himself.

DEMOCRATS are protesting that they

committee, doesn't propose to spend a

was promptly overruled. Tayler believes the committee was appointed to investigate and it's going to investigate the quickest way.

HAVE DECISION.

Yes, have decision of character and act well your part in any avenue of life in which you have been placed. Act from principle. Possess the inner consciousness of true manhood. A well is so conscious of the rectitude of his intentions as to be willing to open his bosom to the inspection of the world, is in possession of one of the strongest traits

of a decided character." Have decision

PITS OF INFAMY.

Yes, pits of infamy and dens of iniquity. We have them in this city, one of them on one of our most prominent thoroughfares, selling liquor illegally by day and by night, every day and night in the week, Sunday included. And what officers we have? The punishment of some of these fellows is sure to materialize. Not long since there was a den of evil in this city pulled. The officer in charge of the affair is an honest man, possessing nerve and courage. He had placed a fellow officer at a rear door and was sure of many victims. The blackguard at the rear entrance not only did not do his duty, but connived at the escape of the lawbreakers, and was assisting two notorious females, who had been in the den, to go free from danger
and punishment, when he was detected in the very act and was unceremoniously called down for his illegal, unofficer-like and treacherous conduct. And yet there are councilmen in our councilmanic chamber who stand by the fellow and uphold him in his villainess and unlawful proceedings. Such councilmen are a shame and a disgrace to our city, and an organized battle must be fought against them next Spring, if they dare
to place their names before the people as candidates. And the cowards will not dare deny the statements made above, as absolute and certain and undeniable proof is in possession of the writer.

CITY HAS NO CONTRACT

Mayor Can Send Prisoners to Workhouse

AND THE CITY PAYS THE BILLS

The Old Contract Is Still In Force and It Costs the City About $3 Per Man to Keep Prisoners at the Works—Local Justices Never Sent Any Person There.

The city of East Liverpool has no
contract with the Canton workhouse,
but council gave the mayor the authority to send prisoners to that institution and they pay the bills. The city had a contract with the workhouse people about two years ago, but when it expired it was decided not to renew it, and the prisoners from here are received at the old contract price.

The contract is a kind of a sliding scale and the price of keeping a man at the workhouse gets cheaper the longer
he stays there. Counting the $10 it costs to land a man in the workhouse
and the $2.15 it costs to bring him home
the city pays about $3 a week to keep a man in the workhouse.

The local justices are not included in the number of squires who sent prisoners
to the workhouse from this county.

Lisbon Bank Receiver Sues Cen-

Lisbon Village.

LISBON, Dec. 14.—[Special]—I. B.
Cameron, as receiver of the First Na-

trustees of Center township asking for a judgment of $1,390.60, claimed by the bank, on orders issued by the trustees
on the township treasurer, M. J. Child, in favor of various persons. These orders were presented to Child at the bank for payment and were paid by him,
the receiver claims, out of bank funds
as cashier of the bank, instead of out of township funds as township treasurer,
and that the orders thereupon became
the property of the bank and were counted as assets by the bank examiner.

The receiver has also sued the village
of Lisbon for $2,634.14, on orders issued by the council and paid in the same way.

FOR PRESIDENT--Second Term.
WM. MCKINLEY, of Ohio.

GOEBEL is beginning to believe that
 Bryan's help did it.

THE price of coal is valiantly trying to keep up with the rise in the river.

It's beginning to look as if it would be made unanimous for McKinley next
 year.

EVERY doubtful state where Bryan talked last fall, except his own, went Republican.

ROPER of New Jersey seems to be the champion swindler. Victims from all parts of the country admit his success
 as a roper-in.

THE news that Aguinaldo will henceforth confine himself to guerilla warfare
 confirms the impression that he is making a monkey of himself.

DEMOCRATS are protesting that they are to have no opportunity to debate the currency bill. What the country wants is action, not debate, and the Republicans propose to see that it gets it.

THAT Michigan minister who settled a dispute and a saloonkeeper in five rounds is to be expelled from his church. What would they have done to him if he had lost the battle?

CHAIRMAN TAYLER, of the Roberts committee, doesn't propose to spend a lifetime fooling with technical objections. Roberts' plea of no jurisdiction was promptly overruled. Tayler believes the committee was appointed to investigate and it's going to investigate
 the quickest way.

 act well your part in any avenue of life

 in possession of one of the strongest traits
 of a decided character." Have decision

PITS OF INFAMY.

Yes, pits of infamy and dens of iniquity. We have them in this city, one of them on one of our most prominent thoroughfares, selling liquor illegally by
 day and by night, every day and night
 in the week, Sunday included. And what officers we have? The punishment
 of some of these fellows is sure to materialize. Not long since there was a den of evil in this city pulled. The officer in charge of the affair is an honest man, possessing nerve and courage. He had placed a fellow officer at a rear door and was sure of many victims. The blackguard at the rear entrance not only did not do his duty, but connived at the escape of the lawbreakers, and was assisting two notorious females, who had been in the den, to go free from danger
 and punishment, when he was detected
 in the very act and was unceremoniously
 called down for his illegal, unofficer-like
 and treacherous conduct. And yet there are councilmen in our councilmanic
 chamber who stand by the fellow and uphold him in his villainous and unlawful proceedings. Such councilmen are a shame and a disgrace to our city, and
 an organized battle must be fought
 against them next Spring, if they dare
 to place their names before the people
 as candidates. And the cowards will not dare deny the statements made above, as absolute and certain and undeniable proof is in possession of the writer.

CITY HAS NO CONTRACT

Mayor Can Send Prisoners to Workhouse

AND THE CITY PAYS THE BILLS

The Old Contract Is Still In Force and It Costs the City About $3 Per Man to Keep Prisoners at the Works—Local Justices Never Sent Any Person There.

The city of East Liverpool has no contract with the Canton workhouse, but council gave the mayor the authority to send prisoners to that institution and they pay the bills. The city had a contract with the workhouse people about two years ago, but when it expired it was decided not to renew it, and the prisoners from here are received at the old contract price.

The contract is a kind of a sliding scale and the price of keeping a man at the workhouse gets cheaper the longer he stays there. Counting the $10 it costs to land a man in the workhouse and the $2.15 it costs to bring him home the city pays about $3 a week to keep a man in the workhouse.

The local justices are not included in the number of squires who sent prisoners to the workhouse from this county.

CAMERON AFTER CASH.

Lisbon Bank Receiver Sues Center Township Trustees and Lisbon Village.

LISBON, Dec. 14.—[Special]—I. B. Cameron, as receiver of the First National bank, has brought suit against the trustees of Center township asking for a judgment of $1,390.60, claimed by the bank, on orders issued by the trustees on the township treasurer, M. J. Child, in favor of various persons. These orders were presented to Child at the bank for payment and were paid by him, the receiver claims, out of bank funds as cashier of the bank, instead of out of township funds as township treasurer, and that the orders thereupon became the property of the bank and were counted as assets by the bank examiner. The receiver has also sued the village of Lisbon for $2,634.14, on orders issued by the council and paid in the same way.

LONDON, Dec. 14.--[Special]--A Pieter-

received. The latest from Buller was that on the night of December 12 (Tues-

The Boers were supposed to be waiting to contest Buller's advance across the

WICK CHINA COMPANY

A Suit Filed by One of the Stockholders, Who

WANTS A RECEIVER APPOINTED

She Claims That John Wick, Jr., Has
Dominated and Controlled the Business,
"Using His Power Unfairly For the Promotion of His Own Personal Interests."

In the United States circuit court at Pittsburg, Tuesday, Martha C. Bailey
filed a bill in equity against the Wick
China company and others. The complainant is the owner of $2,000 of the capital stock of the defendant company, which has a capital of $100,000, of which $75,000 has been issued, so it is alleged.
The works are in Rayburn township,
Armstrong county.

John Wick, Jr., owns a majority of the capital stock and it is alleged he has dominated and controlled the business,
"using his said power unfairly, oppres-
sively and fraudulently for the promotion of his own personal interests." She charges that the officers and directors of the company are acting without legal authority, as no meeting of the stockholders has been held since 1895.

The bill further alleges "that John Wick, Jr., without authority, has, from time to time, taken large sums of money from the treasury of the company and appropriated the same to his own use.
The plaintiff charges that it exceeds $2,- 400."

The bill then charges that Tyson Heil-man, a creditor of the company, "has taken money from the treasury of said company." The amount is fixed at $7,- 604.42.

The bill alleges that John Wick, Jr.,
transferred to the Ford China company
some of the business of the Wick China company and in general diverted the business of the Wick company; and asks that a receiver be appointed to take charge of the business of the Wick company; and that John Wick, Jr., be restrained from transferring any stock
of the company.

Several people from here were formerly employed at the plant until the strike came, when Wick refused to pay
the 12½ per cent increase.

Wick is well known here and at one time ran a shoe store in this city and later was proprietor of the Vienna skating rink.

Henry McAllister, aged 28, residing with his mother at 109 Ravine street, fell from a platform while lathing a house of C. C. Thompson, on Thomp-

1:40 o'clock.

McAllister for several years had been employed as a plasterer by William

Doctor Hobbs was summoned, and upon examination found a blood vessel had been ruptured, which caused a hemor-

"Most people seem to think," says a

only exist in novels and plays, but this is by no means so. I very frequently ploy a clever woman designer, who shows positive genius in planning places of concealment, which no amount of tapping or measuring could reveal. In most cases, even were the hollow receptacle discovered, the woodwork around would have to be cut away, so complex are the fastenings.

Most of the orders come from women—
and rich people, of course—and I have no doubt that a desire to hide articles from too curious servants dictates the orders."—New York Tribune.

Secret Drawers.

"Most people seem to think," says a maker of furniture, "that secret drawers and hidden receptacles in furniture
only exist in novels and plays, but this is by no means so. I very frequently take orders for such items, and I employ a clever woman designer, who shows positive genius in planning
places of concealment, which no
amount of tapping or measuring could reveal. In most cases, even were the hollow receptacle discovered, the woodwork around would have to be cut
away, so complex are the fastenings.
Most of the orders come from women—
and rich people, of course—and I have no doubt that a desire to hide articles
from too curious servants dictates the orders."—New York Tribune.

BULLER IN LADYSMITH

Pietermaritzburg Dispatch Reports His Arrival.

HAS CAPTURED 10,000 BOERS

The News Is Not Confirmed but Buller Was Within Striking Distance of Ladysmith Tuesday Night--Winston Churchill Escapes.

LONDON, Dec. 14.--[Special]--A Pieter-
maritzburg dispatch says:
"Buller has entered Ladysmith and captured ten thousand Boers."

No confirmation of this news has been received. The latest from Buller was that on the night of December 12 (Tuesday), his army was three miles south of Colenzo on the Tugela river, which is 25 miles due south from Ladysmith.
The Boers were supposed to be waiting
to contest Buller's advance across the Tugela, which, during the rainy season, is turbulent and unfordable. If the Pietermaritzburg news is correct Buller's army must have raised the Boer siege of Ladysmith and captured the besiegers.
The northern neck of Natal is still held by the Boers, and Pretoria is 300 miles away.

Churchill Escapes.
LORENZO MARQUES, Dec. 14--[Special]--Winslow Churchill, captured by Boers, has escaped from Pretoria.

WICK CHINA COMPANY

A Suit Filed by One of the Stockholders, Who

WANTS A RECEIVER APPOINTED

She Claims That John Wick, Jr., Has
Dominated and Controlled the Business,
"Using His Power Unfairly For the Promotion of His Own Personal Interests"

In the United States circuit court at Pittsburg, Tuesday, Martha C. Bailey
filed a bill in equity against the Wick
China company and others. The complainant is the owner of $2,000 of the capital stock of the defendant company,
which has a capital of $100,000, of which $75,000 has been issued, so it is alleged.
The works are in Rayburn township,
Armstrong county.

John Wick, Jr., owns a majority of the capital stock and it is alleged he has dominated and controlled the business,
"using his said power unfairly, oppres-
sively and fraudulently for the promotion of his own personal interests." She charges that the officers and directors
of the company are acting without legal authority, as no meeting of the stockholders has been held since 1895.

The bill further alleges "that John Wick, Jr., without authority, has, from time to time, taken large sums of money
from the treasury of the company and appropriated the same to his own use.
The plaintiff charges that it exceeds $2,- 400."

The bill then charges that Tyson Heil
man, a creditor of the company, "has taken money from the treasury of said company." The amount is fixed at $7,- 604.42.

The bill alleges that John Wick, Jr.,
transferred to the Ford China company
some of the business of the Wick China
company and in general diverted the business of the Wick company; and asks that a receiver be appointed to take charge of the business of the Wick
company; and that John Wick, Jr., be restrained from transferring any stock
of the company.

Several people from here were formerly employed at the plant until the strike came, when Wick refused to pay
the 12½ per cent increase.

Wick is well known here and at one time ran a shoe store in this city and later was proprietor of the Vienna skating rink.

BATTLE IN THE CLOUDS

Desperate Fighting In Pursuit of Aguinaldo.

DETAILS OF KILLING OF MARCH.

Fell From a Sharpshooters' Bullet While Trying to Get His Men to Make a Stand—March and His Men Overcome Fearful Obstacles.

MANILA, Dec. 14.—A dispatch dated Cervantes, Dec. 5, was received from a correspondent of The Associated Press with Major March's battalion, which said in part:

"Major March, with Captains Jenkinson and Cunningham, Lieutenants Tompkins, Rucker, McClelland and Powers and 135 men, is about starting for Bonteco through an absolutely desolate country and over a mountain 10,000 feet high. He is pursuing Aguinaldo, whose escort, now reduced to 50 men, is known to be there.

"According to the natives, Aguinaldo intends to disguise himself and to take a circuitous trail toward Bayombong, province of Nueva Vizcaya.

Major March, with 300 men, arrived at Cervantes about 20 hours behind Aguinaldo, who had believed he had found an inaccessible refuge. On December 2 the American commander had a wonderful fight in a cloud-enveloped mountain pass, 3,000 feet above the sea, completely routing General Gregorio del Pilar's force of 200 picked men in a position almost strong enough to rival Thermopylae.

"General Pilar died at the front of his men, urging them to make a stand until the ball of a sharpshooter pierced his head. His followers tried to secure his body but were compelled to leave it.

"Two of the Americans were killed and were buried by their comrades where they fell. The others, carrying nine wounded, camped for the night on top of the mountain, an eminence of 4,000 feet, suffering greatly from the cold blasts. In the morning they moved down the trail to Dugaqui, where they learned that Aguinaldo, with a few men and three women, all carried on litters borne by Igorrotes, had passed along the same trail to Cervantes, where he was during the fight. A rumor had brought him the news of the death of his chief of staff. He was greatly affected and prepared instantly for flight.

"General Concepcion, with six officers, who had deserted Aguinaldo, surrendered when Major March reached Cayan, province of Lepanto.

"On arriving at Cervantes, Major March's battalion was without food, except rice, and had only a small supply of ammunition. Major March secured five days' rations, made arrangements for his sick and wounded and, having chosen 25 mounted and 100 unmounted men, resumed the chase at daybreak."

Major March, with 300 men, arrived at Cervantes about 20 hours behind Aguinaldo, who had believed he had found an inaccessible refuge. On December 2 the American commander had a wonderful fight in a cloud-enveloped mountain pass, 3,000 feet above the sea, completely routing General Gregorio del Pilar's force of 200 picked men in a position almost strong enough to rival Thermopylae.

"General Pilar died at the front of his men, urging them to make a stand until the ball of a sharpshooter pierced his head. His followers tried to secure his body but were compelled to leave it.

"Two of the Americans were killed and were buried by their comrades where they fell. The others, carrying nine wounded, camped for the night on top of the mountain, an eminence of 4,000 feet, suffering greatly from the cold blasts. In the morning they moved down the trail to Dugauqui, where they learned that Aguinaldo, with a few men and three women, all carried on litters borne by Igorrotes, had passed along the same trail to Cervantes, where he was during the fight. A rumor had brought him the news of the death of his chief of staff. He was greatly affected and prepared instantly for flight.

"General Concepcion, with six officers, who had deserted Aguinaldo, surrendered when Major March reached Cayan, province of Lepanto.

"On arriving at Cervantes, Major March's battalion was without food, except rice, and had only a small supply of ammunition. Major March secured five days' rations, made arrangements for his sick and wounded and, having chosen 25 mounted and 100 unmounted men, resumed the chase at daybreak."

BATTLE IN THE CLOUDS

Desperate Fighting In Pursuit of Aguinaldo.

DETAILS OF KILLING OF MARCH.

Fell From a Sharpshooters' Bullet While Trying to Get His Men to Make a Stand—March and His Men Overcome Fearful Obstacles.

MANILA, Dec. 14.—A dispatch dated Cervantes, Dec. 5, was received from a correspondent of The Associated Press with Major March's battalion, which said in part:

"Major March, with Captains Jenkinson and Cunningham, Lieutenants Tompkins, Rucker, McClelland and Powers and 125 men, is about starting for Bonteco through an absolutely desolate country and over a mountain 10,000 feet high. He is pursuing Aguinaldo, whose escort, now reduced to 50 men, is known to be there.

"According to the natives, Aguinaldo intends to disguise himself and to take a circuitous trail toward Bayambang, province of Nueva Vizcaya. Major March, with 300 men, arrived at Cervantes about 20 hours behind Aguinaldo, who had believed he had found an inaccessible refuge. On December 2 the American commander had a wonderful fight in a cloud-enveloped mountain pass, 3,000 feet above the sea, completely routing General Gregorio del Pilar's force of 200 picked men in a position almost strong enough to rival Thermopylae.

THE OLD TIME BELLE.

The Busy Modern Girlhood Smiles over Her Trivial Interests.

An extract from the "journal of a young lady of fashion" several centuries ago makes one feel quite relieved that it is not really a part of elegant living nowadays to keep journals, remarks an exchange. Poor little faded journal! The delicate little hand that penned those cramped lines, maybe, was given to "John Grey." For romance's sake, let's hope that it was.

"7 o'clock—Went to walk with the lady, my mother, in the courtyard.

"10 o'clock—Went to dinner; John Grey, a most comely youth—but what is that to me?—The virtuous maiden should be entirely under the direction of her parents. John ate but little and stole a great many tender looks at me; said women would never be handsome, in his opinion, who were not good natured. I hope my temper is not intolerable. * * * Rose from the table; the company all desirous of walking in the fields; John Grey would lift me over every stile, and twice he squeezed my hands with vehemence. I cannot say I should have any objections to John Grey; he plays at prison bars as well as any of the country gentlemen and is remarkably dutiful to his parents, my lord and lady, and never misses church on Sunday."

A sample of poetry dedicated to "a young lady" shows what women were served with in the way of literature:

And he whose lot is blessed,
As only man's can be,
Will find too sure a rest
On earth with thee.
Where all is bright and fair
And every joy entwined,
Thou'lt be transplanted there
And ever bloom.

O ye shades of our ancestresses! What would you think of the contents of some of our library shelves? What would you think of the rosy cheeked girl who would consider such poetry as you read simply too insipid and stupid for any use?—Baltimore Herald.

MACREADY ON THE STAGE.

The Tragedian Was Not a Pleasant Man to Act With.

Macready was a dreadful man to act with. You had the pleasant sensation of knowing that you were doing nothing that he wanted you to do, though following strictly his instructions. He would press you down with his hand on your head and tell you in an undertone to stand up. Mr. Macready was a terribly nervous actor. Any little thing which happened unexpectedly irritated him beyond endurance.

One night at the Park "Macbeth" was the play. Mrs. Sloman, an old fashioned actress, dressed Lady Macbeth in the manner which prevailed in her early life, in black velvet, point lace and pearl beads. In the murder scene part of his dress caught on the tassels of her pearl girdle. The string broke, the beads fell to the floor softly with a pretty rhythmic sound, distinctly heard through the intense silence of the scene.

This so exasperated Mr. Macready that he was almost frantic, until, with the final lines of the scene, "Wake, Duncan with the knocking, oh! Would thou couldst," he threw Mrs. Sloman off the stage, with words which I hope were unheard by the public and were certainly unfit for publication.—"Autobiographical Sketches," by Mrs. John Drew, in Scribner's.

A City With Two Carriages.

There are only two carriages in town. One belongs to the archbishop, and the other carriage is the property of the government and one of the perquisites that pertain to the presidential power. It is an ordinary landau, imported from Paris in pieces and put together by local talent, and a native artist has painted upon the panels of the doors a brilliant reproduction of the coat of arms of the republic, about a foot square, in the national colors—green, yellow and red. This is greatly admired by the populace, who see the carriage only occasionally, on state occasions, when it is drawn by four big black horses wearing harness heavily mounted with silver and decorated with rosettes, tassels and streamers of the national colors.—La Paz (Bolivia) Cor. Chicago Record.

An Illustrious Newsboy.

The guests at my table at the luncheon were Professors Gneist and Hoffman and Von Bunsen. While thus refreshing ourselves, both physically and mentally, Hoffman told the following story of Faraday, whom he had known very intimately. They were walking one day together through the streets of London, where both were then professors, when Faraday stopped a newsboy and bought a paper. Hoffman asked him why, with his house supplied regularly with all the papers he needed, he stopped to buy a paper from a boy in the street. Faraday replied, "I was once a newsboy myself and sold papers on the street." John Bigelow's Recollections in Century.

UNION LABELS.

It should be a deep-rooted principle of all union workmen and union sympathizers, and particularly those members of the different organizations of East Liverpool, to buy nothing but Union Label goods, in preference to all others. And why not? If we ask fair wages for our labor, why should we buy goods made at unfair wages by others?

THE OLD TIME BELLE.

The Busy Modern Girlhood Smiles Over Her Trivial Interests.

An extract from the "Journal of a young lady of fashion" several centuries ago makes one feel quite relieved that it is not really a part of elegant living nowadays to keep journals, remarks an exchange. Poor little faded journal! The delicate little hand that penned those cramped lines, maybe, was given to "John Grey." For romance's sake, let's hope that it was.

"7 o'clock—Went to walk with the lady, my mother, in the courtyard.

"10 o'clock—Went to dinner: John Grey, a most comely youth—but what is that to me? Aithous maiden should be entirely under the direction of her parents. John ate but little and stole a great many tender looks at me; said women would never be handsome, in his opinion, who were not good natured. I hope my temper is not intolerable. * * * Rose from the table; the company all desirous of walking in the fields: John Grey would lift me over every stile, and twice he squeezed my hands with vehemence. I cannot say I should have any objections to John Grey; he plays at prison bars as well as any of the country gentlemen and is remarkably dutiful to his parents, my lord and lady, and never misses church on Sunday."

A sample of poetry dedicated to "a young lady" shows what women were served with in the way of literature:

And he whose lot is blessed,
As only man's can be,
Will find too sure a rest
On earth with thee.
Where all is bright and fair
And every joy entomb,
Thou'lt be transplanted there
And ever bloom.

O ye shades of our ancestresses! What would you think of the contents of some of our library shelves? What would you think of the rosy cheeked girl who would consider such poetry as you read simply too insipid and stupid for any use?—Baltimore Herald.

MACREADY ON THE STAGE.

The Tragedian Was Not a Pleasant Man to Act With.

Macready was a dreadful man to act with. You had the pleasant sensation of knowing that you were doing nothing that he wanted you to do, though following strictly his instructions. He would press you down with his hand on your head and tell you in an undertone to stand up. Mr. Macready was a terribly nervous actor. Any little thing which happened unexpectedly irritated him beyond endurance.

One night at the Park "Macbeth" was the play. Mrs. Sloman, an old fashioned actress, dressed Lady Macbeth in the manner which prevailed in her early life, in black velvet, point lace and pearl beads. In the murder scene part of his dress caught on the tassels of her pearl girdle. The string broke, the beads fell to the floor softly with a pretty rhythmic sound, distinctly heard through the intense silence of the scene.

This so exasperated Mr. Macready that he was almost frantic, until, with the final lines of the scene, "Wake, Duncan with the knocking, oh! Would thou couldst," he threw Mrs. Sloman off the stage, with words which I hope were unheard by the public and were certainly unfit for publication.—"Autobiographical Sketches," by Mrs. John Drew, in Scribner's.

A City With Two Carriages.

There are only two carriages in town. One belongs to the archbishop, and the other carriage is the property of the government and one of the perquisites that pertain to the presidential power. It is an ordinary landau, imported from Paris in pieces and put together by local talent, and a native artist has painted upon the panels of the doors a brilliant reproduction of the coat of arms of the republic, about a foot square, in the national colors—green, yellow and red. This is greatly admired by the populace, who see the carriage only occasionally, on state occasions, when it is drawn by four big black horses wearing harness heavily mounted with silver and decorated with rosettes, tassels and streamers of the national colors.—La Paz (Bolivia) Cor. Chicago Record.

An Illustrious Newsboy.

The guests at my table at the luncheon were Professors Gneist and Hoffman and Von Bunsen. While thus refreshing ourselves, both physically and mentally, Hoffman told the following story of Faraday, whom he had known very intimately. They were walking one day together through the streets of London, where both were then professors, when Faraday stopped a newsboy and bought a paper. Hoffman asked him why, with his house supplied regularly with all the papers he needed, he stopped to buy a paper from a boy in the street. Faraday replied, "I was once a newsboy myself and sold papers on the street." John Bigelow's Recollections in Century.

UNION LABELS.

It should be a deep-rooted principle of all union workmen and union sympathizers, and particularly those members of the different organizations of East Liverpool, to buy nothing but Union Label goods, in preference to all others. And why not? If we ask fair wages for our labor, why should we buy goods made at unfair wages by others?

The Union Label in every industry is a guarantee of fair wages, decent working hours and union labor employed.

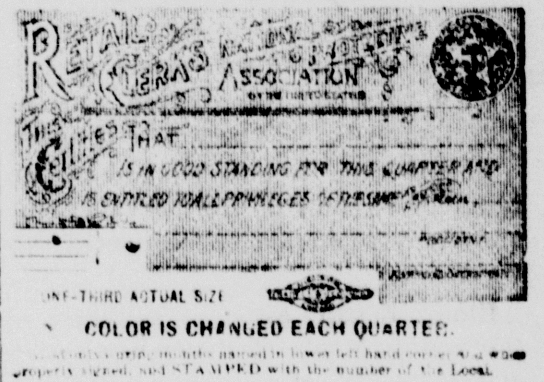

UNION PAPERS.

All Union papers of East Liverpool are known to the various craft and unions of the city by the printing of the above Union Labels at the head of their columns.

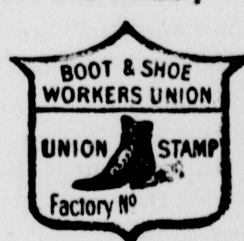

PATRONIZE UNION CLERKS.

Members of the R. C. N. P. A. can show this card when making their purchases.

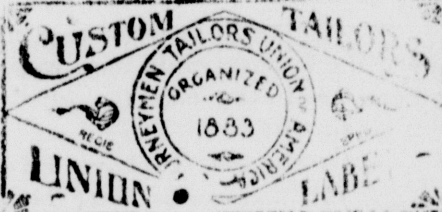

UNION MADE BOOTS AND SHOES.

The Boot and Shoe Workers' union is the national head of the trade, and is a new combination of all the branches of boot and shoe workers. The above trade-mark when found on the sole or lining of a boot or shoe, is a guarantee that the same is made by union labor. Look for the above design stamped on the sole of every pair of boots or shoes you buy.

CUSTOM TAILORS' LABEL.

The Journeymen Tailor's Label is to be found in the inside breast pocket of the coat, on the under side of the buckle strap of the vest, and on the waistband lining of the pants. It is printed in black ink on white linen.

UNION MADE CLOTHES.

You will find the linen label attached by machine stitching to the inside breast pocket of the coat, on the inside of the buckle strap of the vest, and on the waistband lining of the pants.

BICYCLE LABEL.

"Do unto others as ye would that others should do unto you." You will endorse the "Golden Rule" by buying and riding bicycles bearing this Label. The colors are as follows: The Union shield is in red, white and blue, of a background of pea green, bordered by gold. The Label will be placed on the upper front side of the tube that receives the seat post.

UNION BREAD AND CRACKERS.

This is a full size facsimile of the Label of the Bakers' and Confectioners' union. It is printed on fine white paper and is pasted on each loaf of union-made bread. It is an evidence that the bread is made under fair and wholesome conditions, and in clean and healthy bakeries. Following is the confectioners' and cracker Label:

TWO CENTS

REAL LEADER CAUGHT

Mabini, Power Behind Aguinaldo, a Prisoner.

BOLD STROKE OF CAPTAIN MCALLA.

Surrender to Him of Cagayan Province, Taken With Holdings of MacArthur and Young, Put Northern End of Luzon Technically In Our Possession.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—The secretary of war regarded the information conveyed in General Otis' dispatches as the most important that has come to hand for months past. The capture of Mabini reported by MacArthur from Bayambang, was especially gratifying. It is believed that the Filipino leader was trying to make his way across country from Bangued, where he had been obliged to part company with Aguinaldo a fortnight ago, to the east coast of Luzon. The members of the Philippine commission now in Washington declare without reserve that Mabini was the head and front of the insurrection. Aguinaldo was only a figurehead. Mabini was also the financial strength of the movement, as without his backing Aguinaldo would have had no credit.

Next in importance to the capture of Mabini in the developments of the campaign was the bold stroke of Captain McCalla of the Newark in capturing the whole province of Cagayan. With MacArthur holding the province of Isabela, adjoining, and Young's holdings on the opposite or western shore of the upper peninsula, the American forces are now in technical occupation of the whole northern end of Luzon from a point just north of the gulf of Lingayen. McCalla posted at the port of Aparri, the only good port on the northern end of the island, commands the greater part of the whole length of the Rio Grande, affording entrance by boats to a full third of the interior of the island. It is up this river that Captain McCalla is sending steam launches carrying supplies to Major Batchelor.

The latter officer, with a few negro soldiers of the Twenty-fourth infantry, has just completed one of the most daring marches connected with the present campaign. Detaching his little force from MacArthur a week ago, he drove straight through the centre of the island northward, cutting loose from his communications and bound to reach Aparri or be captured or killed in the attempt. Captain McCalla's advance indicates that he has succeeded, being now within touch of the navy on the north shore.

Bates' report from the southern archipelago has allayed the apprehension excited for the security of things there growing out of the agitation by the misleading publications of important insurgent victories.

TREATY WITH OUR SULTAN.

Text of the Agreement Transmitted to the Senate—Salaries of the Sultan and the Sub-Chiefs.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—The following is the text of the agreement between General Bates and the sultan of Jolo, better known as the Jolo treaty, which has been sent to the senate by the president:

Agreement.

Between Brigadier General John O. Bates, representing the United States of the one part, and his highness the sultan of Jolo, the Dato Rajah Muda, the Dato Attik, the Dato Calbi, and the Dato Joakanain, of the other part, it being understood that this agreement will be in full force only when approved by the governor general of the Philippine islands and confirmed by the president of the United States and will be subject to future modifications by the mutual consent of the parties in interest.

Article 1.—The sovereignty of the United States over the whole archipelago of Jolo and its dependencies is declared and acknowledged.

Article 2.—The United States flag will be used in the archipelago of Jolo and its dependencies on land and sea.

Article 3.—The rights and dignities of his highness, the sultan and his dates, shall be fully respected; the Moros shall not be interfered with on account of their religion; all their religious customs shall be respected; and no one shall be persecuted on account of his religion.

Article 4.—While the United States may occupy and control such points in the archipelago of Jolo as public interests seem to demand, encroachment will not be made upon the lands immediately about the residence of his highness, the sultan, unless military necessities requires such occupation in case of war with a foreign power, and where the property of individuals is taken, due compensation will be made in each case.

Any person can purchase land in the archipelago of Jolo and the same by obtaining the consent of the sultan and coming to a satisfactory agreement with the owner of the land, and such purchase shall immediately be registered in the proper office of the United States government.

Article 5.—All trade in domestic products of the archipelago of Jolo, when carried on by the sultan and his people with any part of the Philippine islands and when conducted under the American flag shall be free, unlimited and undisturbed.

Article 6.—The sultan of Jolo shall be allowed to communicate direct with the governor general of the Philippine islands in making complaint against the commanding officer of Jolo, or against any naval commander.

Article 7.—The introduction of firearms and war material is forbidden, except under specific authority of the governor general of the Philippine islands.

Article 8.—Piracy must be suppressed and the sultan and his dates agree to heartily co-operate with the United States authorities to that end and to make every possible effort to arrest and bring to justice all persons engaged in piracy.

Article 9.—Where crimes and offenses are committed by Moros against Moros, the government of the sultan will bring to trial and punish the criminals and offenders, who will be delivered to the government of the sultan by the United States authorities if in their possession. In all other cases persons charged with crimes or offenses will be delivered to the United States authorities for trial and punishment.

Article 10.—Any slave in the archipelago of Jolo shall have the right to purchase freedom by paying to the master the usual market value.

Article 11.—In case of any trouble with subjects of the sultan the American authorities in the islands will be instructed to make careful investigation before resorting to harsh measures, as in most cases serious trouble can thus be avoided.

Article 12.—At present Americans or foreigners wishing to go into the country should state their wishes to the Moro authorities and ask for an escort, but it is hoped that this will become unnecessary as we know each other better.

Article 13.—The United States will give full protection to the sultan and his subjects in case any foreign nation should attempt to impose upon them.

Article 14.—The United States will not sell the islands of Jolo or any other island of the Jolo archipelago to any foreign nation without the consent of the sultan of Jolo.

Article 15.—The United States government will pay the following monthly salaries:

Signed in triplicate, in English and Sulu, at Jolo, this 24th day of August, A. D. 1899.

OFFICIAL DISPATCHES.

Otis and Watson Sent Messages—Latter Ascribed Tirona's Surrender to Patriotic Motives.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—General Otis sent dispatches containing the following:

"MANILA, Dec. 13.—Fifty men of the navy and 50 men of the army transported by the navy, took Laoag on the 10th inst. General Young, with staff, followed the next day. He reports Howze, with a battalion of the Thirty-fourth, followed by a portion of the Thirty-third infantry, passed north to Pidding, east of Laoag. March's battalion of the Thirty-fourth was at Cayan, province of Leganto, on the 7th inst. The Third cavalry was along the coast and in the mountains pursuing the enemy. Young states his extreme northern force passed over the mountains, driving the insurgents under General Tirona, who was badly wounded, killing 50 and wounding many. He made large captures of rifles and property, with all insurgent transportation, and released all the Spanish prisoners in that section, to the number of about 2,000. Our casualties were two wounded. Our troops are still pursuing the remnant of Tirona's command.

"Colonel March's battalion of the Thirty-third reported from Cayan, Lepanto province, on the 7th inst. that he had destroyed Aguinaldo's bodyguard, killed General Gregorio Pilar, received the surrender of General Concepcion and staff, killed and wounded 52 insurgents, released 575 Spanish prisoners, including 150 friars, and captured considerable property. His loss was two killed and nine wounded. My information is that Aguinaldo has disguised his individuality, abandoned his troops, and is in hiding in the province of Benguet."

"MANILA, Dec. 13.—Admiral Watson informs me that the province of Cagayan surrendered unconditionally to Captain McCalla of the Newark on the 11th inst., all arms being surrendered. Major Batchelder is 90 miles south of Aparri, and his command is in good condition. Navy will take supplies to Batchelder in a launch at once. This surrender doubtless includes the province of Isabela.

"General Bates at Zamboanga reports affairs there satisfactory. Nearly all rifles surrendered; MacArthur, at Bayambang, reports that he holds as prisoner of war Mabini, the ablest of insurgents and founder of the late government."

Two cablegrams from Admiral Watson, at Cavite, read as follows:

"CAVITE, Dec. 13.—Burwell reports that the Wheeling landed a naval force and a detachment of troops, Kaiser commanding, 16 miles northwest of Luzon, and attacked the city, yesterday, releasing 1,500 Spaniards. Am holding at the request of General Young. No casualties.

"CAVITE, Dec. 13.—General Tirona, commanding Filipinos, unconditionally surrendered Aparri and Cagayan province to Captain McCalla of the Newark on Dec. 11. Princeton and Helena at present in the river. All arms and ammunition surrendered. Tirona surrendered from patriotic motives to prevent further bloodshed. He was appointed civil governor by McCalla, subject to the approval of Otis. Helena was dispatched up the river with stores for Batchelder's troops, 90 miles south of Aparri. Aparri and Engana light-houses relighted. WATSON."

Surrender With Honors of War.

MANILA, Dec. 14.—General Tirona surrendered to Captain McCalla with all the honors of war.

Captain McCalla reviewed the insurgents, and General Tirona reviewed the naval forces. The Americans presented arms while the insurgents were stacking theirs.

Contest for Republican Convention.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—Representatives of the rival cities which seek the honor of entertaining the next Republican national convention began active work. About 20 members of the Hamilton club, of Chicago, reached here. The Philadelphians who are already here express themselves as delighted with their three-days' canvass in Washington, and say they believe Philadelphia will be selected.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Dec. 14.—Negotiations were completed by which the American Railway company, a New Jersey corporation, capitalized at $25,000,000, acquires the Springfield Street Railway and Springfield Light and Power company plant. OMAHA, Dec. 14.—A dispatch from Lincoln said that Governor Poynter said that he had heard from Mr. Bryan since the appointment and that Bryan had expressed great satisfaction with the selection of Allen.

CORPS WIPED OUT.

Battle at Magersfontein Fearfully Bloody.

THE BRITISH HAD TO RETIRE.

Burgers Held Their Position, From Which the English Were Unable to Dislodge Them—The Loss of the British Was Extremely Heavy.

LONDON, Dec. 14.—General Forestier-Walker, telegraphing from Cape Town, sent a dispatch from Lord Methuen dated Modder River, Dec. 12, which contains the following:

"As the Boers occupied their trenches strongly this morning I retired in perfect order here, where I am in security.

"I have gathered from some of the prisoners and from our men with the ambulances, who talked with the Boers, that the enemy's losses were terrible, some corps being completely wiped out. The Boers have been most kind to my wounded."

A dispatch from General Methuen, dated Dec. 12, contained the following:

"Our artillery shelled a very strong position held by the enemy in a long, high kopje, from 4 until dusk, Sunday. It rained hard last night. The Highland brigade attacked at daybreak on Monday the south end of the kopje. The attack was properly timed, but failed. The guards were ordered to protect the Highlands' right and rear.

"The cavalry and mounted infantry, with a howitzer artillery battery, attacked the enemy on the right and the guards on the left, supported by field artillery and howitzer artillery. They shelled the position from daybreak and at 1:15 I sent the Gordons to support the Highland brigade. The troops held their own in front of the enemy's entrenchments until dusk, the positions extending, including the kopje, for a distance of six miles toward the Modder river. Today I am holding my position and entrenching myself. I had to face at least 12,000 men. Our loss was great."

The war office received a dispatch from General Forestier-Walker, dated Cape Town, Tuesday, Dec. 12, containing the following:

"Methuen wires that General Wauchope was killed in action yesterday."

Major General Andrew H. Wauchope, C. B., C. M. G., entered the army in 1865, was promoted colonel in 1888, served in the Ashanti war in 1873, in the Egyptian war in 1882, in the Sudan expedition of 1884-85. He was in command of the First brigade of the Egyptian expeditionary force in 1898. General Wauchope had been wounded four times, three times severely.

A dispatch from Orange River contained the following: "Three hundred and wounded men have arrived here from the Modder river."

LONDON, Dec. 14.—Julian Ralph, describing the battle at Magersfontein in a special dispatch to The Daily Mail said:

"The Boers were entrenched at Magersfontein, four miles north of Modder river. At dawn Monday the Highlanders, advancing across the veldt, were suddenly subjected to a murderous fire from the trenches about 200 yards in front. The greater part of the fearful loss of the day was thus suffered in a single minute.

"Startled and overwhelmed, the brigade retired quickly, but soon rallied and retained their position. This was on the left.

"On the right the Guards' brigade advanced across the veldt against other trenches and fought an invisible foe for 15 hours.

"At 11 in the morning the Gordon Highlanders were sent forward. The Boers allowed them to pass one line of trenches and then enfiladed them. We raked the Boer trenches with artillery throughout the day. The fighting only ceased with nightfall."

FRERE CAMP, Natal, Tuesday, Dec. 12. The Boers are still shelling Ladysmith. The heat is terrific.

MODDER RIVER, Tuesday, Dec. 12.—The British casualties included the Marquis of Winchester, major of the Second battalion Coldstream Guards, who was killed, and Colonel Downham of the First battalion Gordon Highlanders, who was mortally wounded.

When the Highlanders met the murderous pointblank fire of the Boers, about 200 were mown down. The Black Watch regiment, on reinforcing, was able to muster only 160 men. The Boers lost heavily in the trenches and also in the wire entanglements when they came into the open in an attempt to make a flank attack on the British.

DEMOCRATIC SUPPORT.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—The pressure for time to speak on the currency bill in the house continued, as most of the members desired to make contributions to the literature of the occasion. Much of it, however, seemed to be for home consumption.

As far as known 12 Democrats, eight from New York, two from Pennsylvania and one each from Maryland and Massachusetts, will vote for the bill. Among the speakers were Messrs. Fowler of New Jersey, Lacey of Iowa, Cushman of Washington, Hamilton of Michigan and Burton of Ohio, Republicans, for the bill, and Messrs. Brundage of Arkansas, Wheeler of Kentucky, Benton of Missouri, Fox of Mississippi, Plerce of Tennessee, Sulzer of New York, Cowherd of Missouri, Otey of Virginia, Gains of Texas, Democrats, and Mr. Bell of Colorado, Populist, against it.

The house adopted a resolution for a holiday recess from Wednesday, Dec. 20, to Wednesday, Jan. 3. Mr. Richardson, the minority leader, asked that the house adjourn over today to give the members an opportunity to participate in the Washington memorial exercises, but Mr. Payson, the majority leader, objected, saying George Washington, if alive, he thought would be in favor of the house proceeding with the transaction of its business.

At the night session last night the feature was a characteristic speech by Mr. Linney (Rep., N. C.), the only Republican who voted for the Teller Resolution in the Fifty-fourth congress, in explanation of his change of position in favor of the gold standard. The gold standard had stood the test of experience, he claimed, and had proved itself the ideal standard. The other speakers were Messrs. Robinson (Dem., Ind.), Kleberg (Dem., Tex.), Rixey (Dem., Va.), Coome (Dem., Mo.), Zener (Dem., Ind.), Kitchener (Dem., N. C.) and Henry (Dem., Tex.), all against the bill.

Objected to Mr. Marshall's Talk About Him.

A CHURCH IS FREE FROM DEBT

Second Presbyterian Raised a Large Amount Last Sunday Evening—Evangelist Ryland Will Conduct a Series of Meetings in the Suburb.

Fireman Robert Finley, who has been employed at the East End fire station for several months, has sent his resignation to the street committee of council. It took effect yesterday. Mr. Finley will go back to his trade, that of a kilnman. When seen by a reporter yesterday Finley said that he did not think Councilman Marshall did right in talking to reporters the way he did Monday afternoon, but instead he should have come to him personally. "The weather has been very bad of late, and I did not propose to work in the rain," concluded Mr. Finley.

PAID THE DEBT.

Over $400 Was Raised at Second Presbyterian Last Sunday Evening.

For over a year the Second Presbyterian church has been in debt to the extent of $400, but today that debt is a matter of the past. Sunday evening, after the regular services were concluded, Rev. N. M. Crowe, the pastor, requested the congregation to remain, and soon afterwards it was announced what the trustees intended to do. The congregation went to an expense of $1,160 last year to improve the building, and at that time $760 were raised to pay on the work. Sunday night the balance, $400, was raised, and today all debts are paid and a nice balance is in the hands of the treasurer.

NOT RECOGNIZED.

This Explanation Is Made In Order to End Their Agony.

If the young couple who were met this morning, shortly after the midnight hour, in the old Bradshaw addition, or Bradshaw avenue, will read this article, he and she will no doubt feel much relieved when they are informed that the use of their hands over their expressive and handsome countenances prevented recognition. It would be advisable, however, to secure masks for future promenades, as the method of last night was ridiculous in the extreme.

AN EVANGELIST.

Revival Services at Second Presbyterian Will Commence Dec. 31.

Arrangements have been completed whereby a revival service lasting from 7 to 10 days will commence in the Second Presbyterian church Dec. 31. Rev. N. M. Crowe, the pastor, has secured the services of Evangelist Ryland, who is now conducting a series of meetings at Industry. Mr. Ryland was in East End yesterday calling on Reverend Crowe when final arrangements were completed. The revival gives promise of being one of the best ever held in the suburb.

REMOVE THE POLE.

Complaint Made About a Telephone Pole on Pennsylvania Avenue.

Many complaints have been made by teamsters driving on Mulberry street about the telephone pole at the corner of that street and Pennsylvania avenue. The pole is standing out in the roadway about two feet from the curb and there is no room for a wagon to pass between it and the street railway tracks. Inspector Harris has stated he would notify the company to remove the obstruction but nothing has been done yet.

Another Store.

Another butchershop has been opened in the East End. Parties from Smith's Ferry are backing the venture.

ON THE RIVER.

Wharf Boat Crowded With Freight Awaiting First Southern Boat.

The river at noon today stopped rising after it reached a height of 15.3 feet, the largest mark reached for almost seven months. Coal is going south in large quantities.

Many boats tied up at Walker's during the night and the flashing of their electric search lights presented a beautiful sight. Much wreckage is going past this place, and as the towboat Enterprise was passing this morning the wreckage of two barges went past on the Virginia side. Several unsuccessful attempts were made to capture it.

Much freight is being sent south by the boats from this place. The wharf boat is crowded with casks and crates, awaiting the first Cincinnati packet. The Ben Hur went up this morning, being 12 hours behind time. It is due south this evening.

JUDGE'S COMMISSION

Issued to W. W. Hole by Governor Bushnell-Smith May Resign.

Attorney W. W. Hole, of Salem, who was elected common pleas judge at the recent election, has received his commission from Governor Bushnell. It was issued last Friday. His commission as judge takes effect November 1, 1900, and is for five years from that date. There is some talk of Judge P. M. Smith resigning, and in that case Mr. Hole will probably be appointed to fill the unexpired term.

THE RECEPTION.

The Farewell to Secretary Platts and Family Was a Pleasant Affair.

The farewell reception accorded Secretary Platts and family, given last night in the gymnasium room of the Y. M. C. A. building, was an exceedingly pleasant affair. Choice refreshments were served and social enjoyment was afterward in order until almost the midnight hour. Secretary Platts has made himself generally popular in our city, while his estimable wife has won golden opinions in the minds and hearts of the Christian workers of East Liverpool, and her large circle of lady friends will miss her sorely.

A funny feature of last night's program was the indulgence of athletic exercises, on parallel and horizontal bars, by some of the baldheads present, notably two prominent physicians and a newspaper man. Their efforts to chin the horizontal bar would have caused a chimpanzee to fall from his perch from laughter.

Passing the handball and exercise in basket ball were indulged in by a number of lady visitors, who proved themselves experts in making goals. The reception will long be remembered with pleasure by those who were so fortunate as to be present.

WINE OF CARDUI

A SURE MEDICINE.

HANDSON, VA., Dec. 31.
I have been suffering from female weakness for four years, and have taken many medicines, but Wine of Cardui and Back-Draught have done more for me than anything else.

MRS. CAROLINE EVANS.

WINE OF CARDUI

It is a mistake to take any and every kind of medicine when you are sick. There is danger in it. Most of the so-called cures for "female weakness" do nothing more than deaden the pain temporarily, and when the effect wears away the patient is weaker and sicker than before. It is never wise to take chances. You have only one life, and that is dear and precious. If you have any pain, ache, disorder or weakness in the feminine organs, nothing will help you like Wine of Cardui. It helps do away with morning sickness during the early stages of pregnancy, and modifies the pains of childbirth; recovery is rapid and future health is assured. The Wine is purely vegetable, being made of herbs whose medicinal properties act directly upon the organs of womanhood. It is a long-tried remedy, and has many years of success behind it. It is sure. Why take a chance medicine when you can get a sure medicine?

MOORE LOST MONEY

Stole Some Lumber and Cut His Large Rope.

THE GARDNERS AWARDED $3800

For the Ground Appropriated by the Panhandle Railroad Company—Three New Sidings Being Built at the Rolling Mill. News of Chester and About the District.

Robert Moore, a coal dealer, lost much money near Newell's ferry yesterday afternoon when a flat sunk. A lot of lumber was stolen and a rope that would reach from one side of the river to the other was destroyed. At 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon Moore went to the ferry and found the plug in the bottom of the flat had been taken out. The boat was sinking rapidly, but by hard work was towed to the shore and saved.

Last night 30 large pieces of lumber was stolen from a small flat and the only rope about these parts that would reach across the river was cut to pieces. Moore places his loss at $100 and offers a reward for the capture of the people who cut the rope.

THREE SIDINGS.

Railroad Company Doing Much Work About the Rolling Mill Plant.

The grading for the three sidings to built from the main line of the railroad to the Chester rolling mill has been commenced, under the supervision of several engineers from the main office of the railroad company in Pittsburgh. The grading is being done by Contractor Archie Seever, and about 10,000 yards of earth is to be removed. One of the sidings will be built in the mill building the other two on the west side of the mill, and they will not be completed until the extension is built that far.

MORE MONEY.

Jury In Condemnation Cases Awarded Gardner Heirs $3,800.

By asking a jury trial the Gardner heirs of Chester were awarded $3,800 damages last night against the Panhandle Railroad company. The committee appointed by the court to fix the damages for appropriating property awarded the Gardners $3,000. E. D. Marshall, who had charge of their case, stated today that it is likely that the matter would be carried to a higher court, although nothing definite in this respect has been done yet.

MUDDY PLACES.

Horses Unable to Work In Some Parts of Chester.

Contractors McLaughlin and Seever, who are grading several streets on the tracts of the mill company and the Southside Land company, are having much trouble with their work on account of the terrible condition of the ground. Horses become fastened in the mire and are unable to work, and Tuesday 12 of McLaughlin's horses were stuck in the mud. Seever had eight horses off yesterday on this account.

Skiffs Were Lost.

Several skiffs moored to the Virginia side were carried down the river by the swift current yesterday afternoon. Their owners had pulled them far up on the shore, thinking they would be safe, and failed to tie them.

Pulled the Boat Up.

Edwin Snyder's boat house, that has been used by the workmen on the extension as a boarding house, was brought up from the narrows yesterday and tied to the shore opposite the Broadway wharf.

A Horse Died.

A five year old colt owned by Contractor Thomas McNally, of the Cumberland extension, died late yesterday afternoon. It had been working on the road but a short time.

OF UNTOLD VALUE.

The Information Contained In This Citizen's Statement Is Priceless.

The hale, the hearty, the strong can afford to toss this paper to one side impatiently when they read the following, but any sufferer in East Liverpool who has spent a mint of money and suffered hours of excruciating torture caused by kidney complaint will stand in his own light if he does not follow the valuable advice offered by Mr. S. C. Hill, of Ester, Pa., carpenter, who says: "For a year I suffered from pain across my back, difficulty with the kidney secretions and was naturally, anxious to procure some treatment which would check if not radically cure the trouble. Advised by a friend, I procured Doan's kidney pills at the W. & W. pharmacy and I want East Liverpool people to thoroughly grasp this fact, before I used the entire contents of the box I was cured. To prove that my convictions were laid on solid foundation I have since purchased for a neighbor of mine three boxes of Doan's kidney pills. They cured him. Now, when a preparation which cured me in the condition I was in and also my neighbor, a preparation which is held in such reputation in and around East Liverpool that an acquaintance of mine advised me through a newspaper statement to obtain it, when that preparation performs exactly what it promises what can be expected of any resident of East Liverpool suffering from kidney complaint who will not take advantage of his neighbor's experience and profit by his opinions."

 Bryan's help did it.

THE price of coal is valiantly trying to

ROPER of New Jersey seems to be the

 in possession of one of the strongest traits
 of a decided character." Have decision

PITS OF INFAMY.

Yes, pits of infamy and dens of iniquity. We have them in this city, one of them on one of our most prominent thoroughfares, selling liquor illegally by
 day and by night, every day and night
 in the week, Sunday included. And what officers we have? The punishment
 of some of these fellows is sure to materialize. Not long since there was a den of evil in this city pulled. The officer in charge of the affair is an honest man, possessing nerve and courage. He had placed a fellow officer at a rear door and was sure of many victims. The blackguard at the rear entrance not only did not do his duty, but connived at the escape of the lawbreakers, and was assisting two notorious females, who had been in the den, to go free from danger
 and punishment, when he was detected
 in the very act and was unceremoniously called down for his illegal, unofficial-like and treacherous conduct. And yet there are councilmen in our councilmanic
 chamber who stand by the fellow and uphold him in his villainous and unlawful proceedings. Such councilmen are a shame and a disgrace to our city, and
 an organized battle must be fought
 against them next Spring, if they dare
 to place their names before the people
 as candidates. And the cowards will not dare deny the statements made above, as absolute and certain and undeniable proof is in possession of the writer.

CITY HAS NO CONTRACT

Mayor Can Send Prisoners to Workhouse

AND THE CITY PAYS THE BILLS

The Old Contract Is Still In Force and It
 Costs the City About $3 Per Man to Keep Prisoners at the Works—Local
 Justices Never Sent Any Person There.

The city of East Liverpool has no
 contract with the Canton workhouse,
 but council gave the mayor the authority to send prisoners to that institution
 and they pay the bills. The city had a contract with the workhouse people
 about two years ago, but when it expired it was decided not to renew it, and
 the prisoners from here are received at the old contract price.

The contract is a kind of a sliding scale and the price of keeping a man at
 the workhouse gets cheaper the longer
 he stays there. Counting the $10 it costs to land a man in the workhouse
 and the $2.15 it costs to bring him home
 the city pays about $3 a week to keep a man in the workhouse.

The local justices are not included in the number of squires who sent prisoners
 to the workhouse from this county.

 Lisbon Village.

LISBON, Dec. 14.—[Special]—I. B.
 Cameron, as receiver of the First Na-

 trustees of Center township asking for a judgment of $1,390.60, claimed by the bank, on orders issued by the trustees
 on the township treasurer, M. J. Child,
 in favor of various persons. These orders were presented to Child at the bank for payment and were paid by him,
 the receiver claims, out of bank funds
 as cashier of the bank, instead of out of
 township funds as township treasurer,
 and that the orders thereupon became
 the property of the bank and were counted as assets by the bank examiner.
 The receiver has also sued the village
 of Lisbon for $2,634.14, on orders issued by the council and paid in the same way.

BULLER IN LADYSMITH

Pietermaritzburg Dispatch Reports His Arrival.

HAS CAPTURED 10,000 BOERS

The News Is Not Confirmed but Buller Was Within Striking Distance of Ladysmith Tuesday Night--Winston Churchill Escapes.

LONDON, Dec. 14.--[Special]--A Pietermaritzburg dispatch says: "Buller has entered Ladysmith and captured ten thousand Boers."

No confirmation of this news has been received. The latest from Buller was that on the night of December 12 (Tuesday), his army was three miles south of Colenso on the Tugela river, which is 25 miles due south from Ladysmith. The Boers were supposed to be waiting to contest Buller's advance across the Tugela, which, during the rainy season, is turbulent and unfordable. If the Pietermaritzburg news is correct Buller's army must have raised the Boer siege of Ladysmith and captured the besiegers. The northern neck of Natal is still held by the Boers, and Pretoria is 300 miles away.

WICK CHINA COMPANY

A Suit Filed by One of the Stockholders, Who

WANTS A RECEIVER APPOINTED

She Claims That John Wick, Jr., Has Dominated and Controlled the Business, "Using His Power Unfairly For the Promotion of His Own Personal Interests"

In the United States circuit court at Pittsburg, Tuesday, Martha C. Bailey filed a bill in equity against the Wick China company and others. The complainant is the owner of $2,000 of the capital stock of the defendant company, which has a capital of $100,000, of which $75,000 has been issued, so it is alleged. The works are in Rayburn township, Armstrong county.

John Wick, Jr., owns a majority of the capital stock and it is alleged he has dominated and controlled the business, "using his said power unfairly, oppressively and fraudulently for the promotion of his own personal interests." She charges that the officers and directors of the company are acting without legal authority, as no meeting of the stockholders has been held since 1895.

The bill further alleges "that John Wick, Jr., without authority, has, from time to time, taken large sums of money from the treasury of the company and appropriated the same to his own use. The plaintiff charges that it exceeds $2,400."

The bill then charges that Tyson Heilman, a creditor of the company, "has taken money from the treasury of said company." The amount is fixed at $7,604.42.

The bill alleges that John Wick, Jr., transferred to the Ford China company some of the business of the Wick China company and in general diverted the business of the Wick company; and asks that a receiver be appointed to take charge of the business of the Wick company; and that John Wick, Jr., be restrained from transferring any stock of the company.

Several people from here were formerly employed at the plant until the strike came, when Wick refused to pay the 12½ per cent increase.

Wick is well known here and at one time ran a shoe store in this city and later was proprietor of the Vienna skating rink.

BLOOD VESSEL BURST

Henry McAllister Fell From a Platform This Afternoon.

WAS DEAD WHEN PICKED UP

Subject to Epileptic Fits--He Was Stricken by One This Morning--Was a Plasterer by Trade and Was Twenty-eight Years Old.

Henry McAllister, aged 28, residing with his mother at 109 Ravine street, fell from a platform while lathing a house of C. C. Thompson, on Thompson hill shortly after noon and died at 1:40 o'clock.

McAllister for several years had been employed as a plasterer by William Graham. He was subject to epileptic fits, and was attacked by one this morning. Doctor Hobbs was summoned, and upon examination found a blood vessel had been ruptured, which caused a hemorrhage, ending in death.

Clothed With Power.

He was a little uncouth, but was a great traveler. He had just returned from the wilds of central Africa, where he had hobnobbed with all the royal 'ties of that savage region, and was being lionized in the swaggar drawing rooms of Belgravia.

"Do tell us about the queen of Boorabooloo," said the Duchess of Leamshire. "Is she clothed with great power?"

"Your grace would think so," he replied, "if you were to see her six nigger maids of honor lacing her corsets."—Pick-Me-Up.

Secret Drawers.
"Most people seem to think," says a maker of furniture, "that secret drawers and hidden receptacles in furniture only exist in novels and plays, but this is by no means so. I very frequently take orders for such items, and I employ a clever woman designer, who shows positive genius in planning places of concealment, which no amount of tapping or measuring could reveal. In most cases, even were the hollow receptacle discovered, the wood-work around would have to be cut away, so complex are the fastenings. Most of the orders come from women—and rich people, of course—and I have no doubt that a desire to hide articles from too curious servants dictates the orders."—New York Tribune.

BATTLE IN THE CLOUDS

Desperate Fighting In Pursuit of Aguinaldo.

DETAILS OF KILLING OF PILLAR.

Fell From a Sharpshooters' Bullet While Trying to Get His Men to Make a Stand—Marsh and His Men Overcome Fearful Obstacles.

MANILA, Dec. 14.—A dispatch dated Cervantes, Dec. 5, was received from a correspondent of The Associated Press with Major March's battalion, which said in part:

"Major March, with Captains Jenkinson and Cunningham, Lieutenants Tompkins, Rucker, McClelland and Powers and 125 men, is about starting for Bonteco through an absolutely desolate country and over a mountain 10,000 feet high. He is pursuing Aguinaldo, whose escort, now reduced to 50 men, is known to be there.

"According to the natives, Aguinaldo intends to disguise himself and to take a circuitous trail toward Bayombong, province of Nueva Vizcaya.

Major March, with 300 men, arrived at Cervantes about 20 hours behind Aguinaldo, who had believed he had found an inaccessible refuge. On December 2 the American commander had a wonderful fight in a cloud-enveloped mountain pass, 3,000 feet above the sea, completely routing General Gregorio del Pilar's force of 200 picked men in a position almost strong enough to rival Thermopylae.

"General Pilar died at the front of his men, urging them to make a stand until the ball of a sharpshooter pierced his head. His followers tried to secure his body but were compelled to leave it.

"Two of the Americans were killed and were buried by their comrades where they fell. The others, carrying nine wounded, camped for the night on top of the mountain, an eminence of 4,000 feet, suffering greatly from the cold blasts. In the morning they moved down the trail to Dugaqui, where they learned that Aguinaldo, with a few men and three women, all carried on litters borne by Igorrotes, had passed along the same trail to Cervantes, where he was during the fight. A rumor had brought him the news of the death of his chief of staff. He was greatly affected and prepared instantly for flight.

"General Concepcion, with six officers, who had deserted Aguinaldo, surrendered when Major March reached Cayan, province of Lepanto.

"On arriving at Cervantes, Major March's battalion was without food, except rice, and had only a small supply of ammunition. Major March secured five days' rations, made arrangements for his sick and wounded and, having chosen 25 mounted and 100 unmounted men, resumed the chase at daybreak."

Dr. Emily Blackwell, one of the pioneers of her sex in medicine, heard a young physician deliver a fierce diatribe against opening the doors of the profession to women. When he ceased, she asked:

"Will you please tell me one reason why they should not practice medicine?"

"Certainly, madam. They haven't the muscle, the brawn, the physical strength."

THE OLD TIME BELLE.

The Busy Modern Girlhood Smiles over Her Trivial Interests.

An extract from the "Journal of a young lady of fashion" several centuries ago makes one feel quite relieved that it is not really a part of elegant living nowadays to keep journals, remarks an exchange. Poor little faded journal! The delicate little hand that penned those cramped lines, maybe, was given to "John Grey." For romance's sake, let's hope that it was.

"7 o'clock—Went to walk with the lady, my mother, in the courtyard.

"10 o'clock—Went to dinner; John Grey, a most comely youth—but what is that to me? * * * Irrepressible should be entirely under the direction of her parents. John ate but little and stole a great many tender looks at me; said women would never be handsome, in his opinion, who were not good natured. I hope my temper is not intolerable. * * * Rose from the table; the company all desirous of walking in the fields; John Grey would lift me over every stile, and twice he squeezed my hands with vehemence. I cannot say I should have any objections to John Grey; he plays at prison bars as well as any of the country gentlemen and is remarkably dutiful to his parents, my lord and lady, and never misses church on Sunday."

A sample of poetry dedicated to "a young lady" shows what women were served with in the way of literature:

And he whose lot is blessed,
As only man's can be,
Will find too sure a rest
On earth with thee.
Where 'tis bright and fair
And sorry joys entomb,
Thou'lt be transplanted there
And ever bloom.

O ye shades of our ancestresses! What would you think of the contents of some of our library shelves? What would you think of the rosy cheeked girl who would consider such poetry as you read simply too insipid and stupid for any use?—Baltimore Herald.

MACREADY ON THE STAGE.

The Tragedian Was Not a Pleasant Man to Act With.

Macready was a dreadful man to act with. You had the pleasant sensation of knowing that you were doing nothing that he wanted you to do, though following strictly his instructions. He would press you down with his hand on your head and tell you in an undertone to stand up. Mr. Macready was a terribly nervous actor. Any little thing which happened unexpectedly irritated him beyond endurance.

One night at the Park "Macbeth" was the play. Mrs. Sloman, an old fashioned actress, dressed Lady Macbeth in the manner which prevailed in her early life, in black velvet, point lace and pearl beads. In the murder scene part of his dress caught on the tassels of her pearl girdle. The string broke, the beads fell to the floor softly with a pretty rhythmic sound, distinctly heard through the intense silence of the scene.

This so exasperated Mr. Macready that he was almost frantic, until, with the final lines of the scene, "Wake, Duncan with the knocking, oh! Would thou couldst," he threw Mrs. Sloman off the stage, with words which I hope were unheard by the public and were certainly unfit for publication.—"Autobiographical Sketches," by Mrs. John Drew, in Scribner's.

A City With Two Carriages.

There are only two carriages in town. One belongs to the archbishop, and the other carriage is the property of the government and one of the perquisites that pertain to the presidential power. It is an ordinary landau, imported from Paris in pieces and put together by local talent, and a native artist has painted upon the panels of the doors a brilliant reproduction of the coat of arms of the republic, about a foot square, in the national colors—green, yellow and red. This is greatly admired by the populace, who see the carriage only occasionally, on state occasions, when it is drawn by four big black horses wearing harness heavily mounted with silver and decorated with rosettes, tassels and streamers of the national colors.—La Paz (Bolivia) Cor. Chicago Record.

An Illustrious Newsboy.

The guests at my table at the luncheon were Professors Gneist and Hoffman and Von Bausen. While thus refreshing ourselves, both physically and mentally, Hoffman told the following story of Faraday, whom he had known very intimately. They were walking one day together through the streets of London, where both were then professors, when Faraday stopped a newsboy and bought a paper. Hoffman asked him why, with his house supplied regularly with all the papers he needed, he stopped to buy a paper from a boy in the street. Faraday replied, "I was once a newsboy myself and sold papers on the street."—John Bigelow's Recollections in Century.

UNION LABELS.

It should be a deep-rooted principle of all union workmen and union sympathizers, and particularly those members of the different organizations of East Liverpool, to buy nothing but Union Label goods, in preference to all others. And why not? If we ask fair wages for our labor, why should we buy goods made at unfair wages by others?

The Union Label in every industry is a guarantee of fair wages, decent working hours and union labor employed.

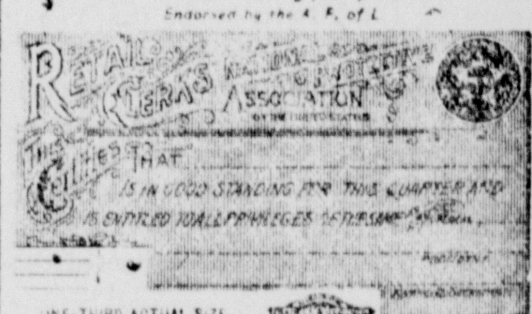

UNION PAPERS.

All Union papers of East Liverpool are now to the various craft and unions of the city by the printing of the above Union Labels at the head of their columns.

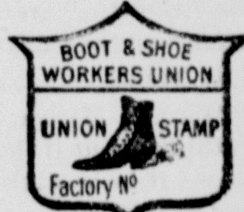

PATRONIZE UNION CLERKS.

Members of the R. C. N. P. A. can show this card Ask for it when making your purchase.

UNION MADE BOOTS AND SHOES.

The Boot and Shoe Workers' union is the national head of the trade, and is a new combination of all the branches of boot and shoe workers. The above trade-mark when found on the sole or lining of a boot or shoe, is a guarantee that the same is made by union labor. Look for the above design stamped on the sole of every pair of boots or shoes you buy.

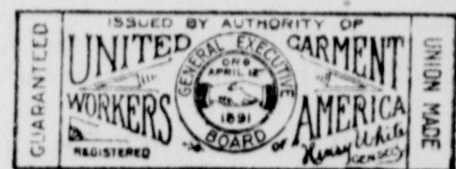

CUSTOM TAILORS' LABEL.

The Journeymen Tailor's Label is to be found in the inside breast pocket of the coat, on the under side of the buckle strap of the vest, and on the waistband lining of the pants. It is printed in black ink on white linen.

UNION MADE CLOTHES.

You will find the linen label attached by machine stitching to the inside breast pocket of the coat, on the inside of the buckle strap of the vest, and on the waistband lining of the pants.

BICYCLE LABEL.

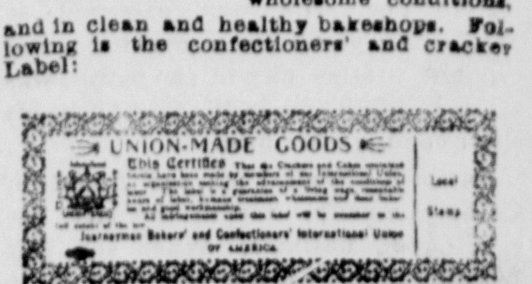

"Do unto others as ye would that others should do unto you." You will endorse the "Golden Rule" by buying and riding bicycles bearing this Label. The colors are as follows: The Union shield is in red, white and blue, on a background of pea green, bordered by gold.

The Label will be placed on the upper front side of the seat that receives the seat post.

UNION BREAD AND CRACKERS.

This is a full size facsimile of the Label of the Bakers' and Confectioners' union. It is printed on fine white paper and is pasted on each loaf of union-made bread. It is an evidence that the bread is made under fair and wholesome conditions, and in clean and healthy bakeries. Following is the confectioners' and cracker Label:
